DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of King Bell as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that King Bell, on November 18, 1891, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Rebecca Bell (nee Donnelly), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears upon the 1896 Choctaw census roll, page 44, No. 1825, duly enrolled as such; that they lived together continuously in said nation, as husband and wife, until the death of said Rebecca Bell, about four years ago, and that the applicant herein is still a resident in good faith of Indian Territory and has not remarried since the death of his said wife up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that King Bell should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Q When were you married to Lucy Johnson? A 2nd of December, '92.
Q Where were you living at that time? A At Allen, in the Choctaw Nation.
Q Was she a resident of the Choctaw Nation also? A She was a resident of the Chickasaw Nation.
Q Where did the marriage take place? A In the Chickasaw Nation.
Q Under what law were you married? A Under Chickasaw laws.
Q Did you procure a Chickasaw license? A Yes sir, from Amos Hays, judge of Pontotoc County.
Q How much didyou pay for thatlicense? A Fifty dollars.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Amos Hays, the judge.
Q How long did you live with Lucy Johnson? A About three months.
Q Did she die? A We were separated.
Q Were you divorced? A Yes sir.
Q Which oneof your obtained the divorce? A She obtained the divorce I suppose.
Q What were the grounds of that divorce? A I dont know that either, I never had no notice of it.
Q What was the cause of your separation? A She considered that she couldn't talk the English language good, and didn't want to live with a person that couldn't talk her language.

Q That was not the only reason for your separation? A Yes sir, thats the only reason; I had none myself; but the main trouble I thought was I was in troublein the United States Coirt, and I thought she was embarrassed over that.

Q Was your treatment of her always the best? A Yes sir.

Q She had no reason on that ground for leaving you? A No sir, I have on file her her affidavit and her mother's both to that fact.

Q Where did she obtain the divorce? A At Tishomingo.

Q In the Chickasaw tribal court? A Yes sir.

Q What was the nameof your second wife? A Susan Scroggins.

Q When were you married to her? A 6th day of February, 1896.

Q Where was this marriage performed? A In this county.

Q Was she a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A No sir, of the Choctaw Nation, but a resident of the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Where were you living at the tis of your marriage to Susan Scroggins? A At Allen in the Choctaw Nation.

Q She was livigin the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Under what law were you married to her? A Under Chickasaw law.

Q Did you obtain a license? A No, I was just married as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw tribe marrying a Choctaw residing in the Chickasaw Nation; that marriage is on record before the Commission.

Q How long did you live with Susan Scroggins? A Lacked ten days of being one year; she died.

Q You lived with her until her death? A Yes sir.

Q What is the name of your third wife? A Marietta Dennis.

Q What Nation was she a citizen of? A She was a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, until her husband died?.

Q Is she a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Then her rights were not dependent on her husband? A No sir, her husband was a white man.

Q You mean sheclaimed rights in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir. She claimed to be a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Have her rights ever been questioned? A No sir.

Q When were you married to Marietta Dennis? A 24th day of December, 1897.

Q Where was this marriage performed? A In Panola County, Chickasaw Nation

Q Were you a resident of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation at that time? A Of the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Your wife was also a resident of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Didyou procure a license for this marriage? A Just as I done before; I married under Chickasaw custom.

Q Did not procure a license? A No, I didn't have to.

Q Married by a minister of the gospel? A Yes sir, Gerge Colbert, a ministerof the gospel and clerk of Pontotoc County too; this marriage is on record with the Commission too.

Q Through your marriage to which one of your wives do you claim intermarried rights? A Under my first wife; it was legal and lawful and just, and I dont see why I cant claim it; it was all in good faith; not my cause as to the separation; I haven't married out of the Nation, and I dont see why I can't claim under my first wife.

Q Was your first wife, Lucy Johnson, ever married before her marriage to you? A No sir.

Q Were you ever married before your marriage to her? A Yes sir, I had a white wife in Alabama; she died.

Q You have had a together four wives? A Yes sir.

Q Your white wife died before your removal to this country? A Yes sir, in Alabama.

Q Mr Oliver, you stated a moment ago that you did not obtain a tribal license to marry your last wife, Marietta Dennis, is that correct? A It is correct this far: The first time I was married to her I did not; I just married her under Chickasaw custom.

Q Did you afterward obtain a license and remarry this woman? A Yes sir, I did.

Q When did you obtain this license? A I dont believe I can give you the exact date to save my life.

Q How long after your first marriage to Marietta Dennis did you remarry her? A I can give you an idea; the Commission was sitting at McAlester, and I appeared before them and was advised to take out a license as though I was a United States citizen and remarry, and I did that and met the Commission at Caddo; that is as near as I can get to the dates; it was between them two settings.

Q From whom did you procure this license? A Simon Wolf, Judge of Pontotoc County.

Q How much did you pay for that license? A I didn't pay anything; they said I had already paid the fifty dollars and didn't need to pay it again.

Q He issued you a regular tribal license at that time? A Yes sir.

Q You were married under that license? A Yes sir.

Q Who performed that second ceremony? A George Colbert, Clerk of Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation.

Q At the time of this marriage to Marietta Dennis were you a bona fide resident of the Chickasaw Nation? A I was considered so.

Q Well, were you? Where was your home at that time? A O, yes, I was a bona fide resident of the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Was she a bona fide resident of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Since your marriage to her have you been living together continuously as husband and wife? A Yes sir.

Q There has been no separation, abandonment or divorce?. A No sir.

Q You are at present living together as bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Leonard C. Oliver as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record in this case that Leonard C. Oliver appeared before the Commission at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, September 27, 1898, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Calvin, Indian Territory, August 7, 1899, when the applicant herein again appeared and presented evidence of his marriage to Marietta E. Dennis, a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, whereupon he was listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Ada, Indian Territory, November 11, 1902.

The evidence in this case further shows that the applicant herein was on December 1, 1892, married in the Chickasaw Nation to Lucy Johnson, a recognized citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, with whom he lived a few days when the said Chickasaw wife abandoned him and a few months later obtained a divorce from him; that subsequently the applicant herein was, on February 6, 1896, married in the Chickasaw Nation to Susan Scroggins, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, with whom he lived until her death in January, 1897.

It further appears from the record herein that the said Leonard C. Oliver, on May 9, 1899, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Marietta E. Oliver (formerly Dennis), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 4 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Leonard C. Oliver should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the

Leonard C. Oliver-2

Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR TO THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES. CHICKASAW ENROLLING OFFICE.

IN THE MATTER OF, L. C. Oliver, applying for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.	BRIEF OF APPLICANT FOR ENROLLMENT.

STATEMENT OF CASE.

-----o-----o---------

If the Commission please the contention on the part of the Nation's attorneys is that the first wife of the Applicant left him because, L. C. Oliver, the applicant, did not treat her right; this contention is not and are not the facts and is simply baseless and without a single scintilla of testimony to support it. Her proof shows that Mr. Oliver treated her well and the testimony of his first wife and that of her mother corobarate each other as to the cause of her leaving her husband; she states and so does her mother that he treated her well and that the reason his wife left him was because she could not talk english. Upon the examination of the record, not a fact, not a circumstances and not an intimation is shown tending to prove that Mr. Oliver did not treat his wife well and was not kind to her during the brief time that they lived together, but how ever, that may be there is no cause here existing and none can be shown by the Nation's attorneys, why this man should not be enrolled as a Chickasaw inter-married citizen. I affirm without the fear of ~~contradictory~~ successful contradiction, that not a line of law, not a spark of testimony can be shown from the testimony, or record why Mr. Oliver should not be enrolled under the laws and treaties existing in the Chickasaw Nation. There is no allegation and no intimation presented by the Nation's attorneys that comes with the inhibition of the inter-married law, because his subsequent marriages were in accordance with the laws of the Chickasaw tribe of laws and he did not re-marry a non-citizen; therefore, upon what ground, if the Commission please, will you refuse to enroll him as a Chickasaw citizen. He does not ask to be enrolled as a Choctaw citizen because one of his wife's was a Choctaw. His license and the records of his enrollment show that he is ~~entitled~~ entitled to be enrolled as a Chickasaw inter-married citizen. We affirm that no instance can be shown in all of the rulings of the Commission adverse to the claim of this applicant for enrollment. He married as the testimony of Amos Hayes shows according to the laws of the Chickasaw Nation, he has never re-married a non-citizen and the records discloses that he was recognized by the tribunal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation as an inter-married citizen, was on the rolls, has exercised all the rights and privileges of a Chickasaw inter-married citizen; has held lands and now holds them under the laws of said Tribe of Indians. If the Commission please upon what ground will you refuse to enroll Mr. Oliver, does the testimony disclose that he ~~ever~~ married a non-citizen? It does not, then, he cannot come under the inter-married law of 1890. Does the testimony show that he abandoned his wife? It does not, then it cannot be assumed or contended by the Nation's attorneys, that he married her just for a right, when her own testimony and that of her mother shows why she left him. We ask the Nation's attorneys to point out one single scentilla of testimony adverse to the claim of this applicant, the record shows that it cannot be done. We ask then, and we respectfully submit that Mr. Oliver should be enrolled as an inter-married Chickasaw Indian; that his case has been long pending and that the Nation's attorneys have had ample time to get up testimony adverse to Mr. Oliver's claim, they have not done so and they cannot do so, the records in this case is conclusive, it shows affirmatively that Mr. Oliver should be enrolled as an inter-married Chickasaw Indian and we respectfully ask that it be done.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your two letters, one without date and another of the 2nd instant, in the matter of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation as to your enrollment as a citizen of that Nation.

The Commission cannot now undertake to go into the merits of these cases but has simply notified the applicants whose rights are questioned that a protest has been filed by the Choctaw Nation and that an opportunity will be given them to appear in person for further testimony at Atoka, Indian Territory, commencing December 3rd, 1900 and also that the Commission will accept and consider written arguments or briefs submitted on behalf of either the applicants or the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission has only thus far been informed by the Choctaw Nation through its attorneys, that they have filed a protest to certain parties whose rights to enrollment have been protested but has required of such attorneys to serve, prior to October 31st/ 1900, notice on those protested applicants, stating therein the grounds upon which their enrollment is protested.

The Commission after its session in Atoka, Indian Territory will dispose of the cases of these protested applicants.

Yours truly,

Leonard C. Oliver,

Newton, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 2nd instant acknowledging receipt of the Commission's letter of the 18th of September in the matter of the protest filed by the representatives of the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You state in your letter that you do not claim as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation but as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation and that you believe you have every right to be enrolled as a citizen of that Nation.

You enclose in your letter certain papers which you desire to have filed withthe Commission in the matter of your enrollment. The same have been accepted and filed with the records of this Commission and will receive consideration in the disposition of your application for enrollment as a intermarried citizen of the Choctaw nation.

Since the Commission wrote you on September 18th, 1900 that it was in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which to base a decision in your case, it has developed that there are certain facts which were not brought to the attention of the Commission when you appeared as an applicant on August 7th, 1899 and before your case can be finally disposed of it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commission and give further testimony as to your marriage to citizen of the Choctaw Nation. The Commission will hear you with such witnesses as you may desire to bring at the session of the Commission at Atoka, Indian Territory beginning December 3rd, 1900.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 22nd instant relative to the protest filed to your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by the representatives of that Nation.

You are informed that the Commission cannot at this time go into the merits of the cases in which the Choctaw Nation has filed this protest.

The Commission has, however, required of the representatives of the Choctaw Nation that they prior to October 31st, 1900, serve notice upon such applicants whose rights they have protested, stating fully therein the grounds upon which objection is made to their enrollment.

You will undoubtedly be furnished with such notice within the near future and can then determine whether it will be necessary for you to furnish additional evidence in the matter of your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation at the session of the Commission at Atoka, December next.

Yours truly,

7-D-294

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 20, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of Departmental letter of October 12, (I.T.D. 7200-1903) with which was inclosed a report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs of October 8, (Land 61655-1903) transmitting to the Department a letter of L. C. Oliver of Francis, Indian Territory, of September 23, 1903. Mr. Oliver in his letter asks for a decision as to whether a white man who marries an Indian woman according to the tribal laws and his wife dies or is separated from him and he marries another Indian woman by blood under said laws must take out a license and marry over as though he was a United States citizen marrying an Indian before he can be enrolled. Also if a man claims a certain tract of land as his prospective allotment and makes lease contract with white men and markets all the valuable timber on that land for railroad ties and cord wood whether the Commission should not require him to file on those lands.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that the letter of Mr. Oliver be referred to the Commission for a statement with reference to both matters contained therein. Concurring in the recommendation of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, the Department, on October 12, 1903, transmitted such letter for report and recommendation.

The letter of Mr. L. C. Oliver is returned herewith and the Commission desires to report that inasmuch as the questions presented therein are purely hypothetical it is not deemed advisable to express any opinion upon the general propositions therein submitted.

As to the rights of Leonard C. Oliver, the Commission has to report that he is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, the evidence in his case showing that he is a white man and was first married in the Chickasaw Nation to a recognized citizen by blood of that tribe; that he lived with her only a few days when his Chickasaw wife abandoned him and a few months later obtained a divorce from him; that he subsequently was married, in the Chickasaw nation, to a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and that subsequent to the death of his second wife he again married a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

We have further to report that Mr. Oliver has never been advised that the Commission required anything further from him than the evidence of his several marriages and we have never expressed any opinion relative to the probability of his final enrollment. This case is now receiving the consideration of the Commission and a decision has been prepared which, when concurred in by the members of the Commission, will be made public. A copy of such decision will be furnished Mr. Oliver and in the event that our action is unfavorable to his application the record will be transmitted for the review of the Department.

As to the other proposition presented in Mr. Oliver's letter, we have no knowledge of any such procedure as suggested therein and if persons are, as he alleges, illegally procuring timber from unallotted land in the Chickasaw Nation, it would, seemingly, be a matter that does not come within the jurisdiction of this Commission but under the office of the United States Indian Inspector for Indian Territory.

We have, therefore, in conclusion to recommend that Mr. Oliver be informed that a decision relative to his application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation will be rendered in the near future, a copy of which decision will be mailed to him, and that in so far as his letter pertains to alleged illegal procuring of timber in the Chickasaw nation that the matter be referred to the proper authorities.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Dear Sir:-

Since notifying you on August 18, 1900, of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The question raised is to your right to enrollment under your second marriage.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Sir:

The Indian Office under date of June 4, 1906, referred to this office for appropriate disposition a number of communications of L. C. Oliver, of Francis, Indian Territory, enclosing letters of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in reference to his application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

These letters seem to be in the nature of a complaint to the Department of the action of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in reference to the enrollment of Mr. Oliver.

I have the honor to report that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on March 15, 1904, rendered a decision granting the application for the enrollment of Leonard C. Oliver as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

No protest having been filed by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations to the enrollment of Mr. Oliver, his name was included upon a schedule of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation submitted for Departmental approval, opposite No. 805, which schedule was approved by the Secretary of the Interior May 21, 1904.

Apparently the relief sought by Mr. Oliver has long since been granted, and the papers transmitted by the Indian Office are returned herewith for proper disposition.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On September 26, 1906 (Land 77953), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated September 4, 1906, relative to a number of communications from L. C. Oliver, of Frances, Indian Territory, in regard to his application for enrolment as a citizen of the Choctaw (or Chickasaw) Nation.

In view of the fact that the name of L. C. Oliver appears opposite number 805 upon the schedule of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation approved by the Department on May 21, 1904, there appears to be no necessity for further action, and Mr. Oliver has been so advised.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Chame Sturdivant as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It is shown by the census card record in this case that application was made to the Commission for the enrollment of Chame Sturdivant as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Ada, Indian Territory, on November 11, 1902.

It further appears from the record herein that the applicant, Chame Sturdivant, claims his right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by reason of his marriage, on August 24, 1896, to Sallie Sturdivant, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled "Chame Sturdivant vs. the Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 807), application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, by reason of his marriage to Sallie Sturdivant, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on December 4, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation, from which decision no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the record herein that at the time of the marriage between Chame Sturdivant and Sallie Sturdivant, both these persons were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Chame Sturdivant should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.,495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William R. Fox as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that William R. Fox, on June 8, 1879, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Angie Fox (nee Manning), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No.15 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in a cause entitled "Wm. R. Fox vs. the Choctaw Nation"(1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket,Case No.434), application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, by reason of his marriage to the said Angie Fox (nee Manning); that on December 2, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission, and that no appeal was taken from said decision.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that William R. Fox should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James C. Johnson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that James C. Johnson, on July 19, 1888, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Malvina Johnson (formerly Bond), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 14471 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior May 20, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that James C. Johnson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 21, 1905, enclosing affidavits of Mahala Greenwood and Seely Owens to the birth of Ellen Greenwood daughter of Hogan and Mahaly Greenwood May 14, 1904; also the affidavits of Malinda Wolfe and Vicen Carney to the birth of Reuben Wright, son of Esau S. and Malinda Wright, March 15, 1904, and the same have been filed with our records as an application for the enrollment of said children.

Replying to that portion of your letter in which you ask to be advised if these applications are sufficient proof for the enrollment of these two children and invite attention particularly to the application of Reuben Wright whose father, though a full blood Indian has never been enrolled, you are advised that the affidavits above referred to have been filed with our records as applications for the enrollment of the children herein named.

Referring to the case of Reuben Wright, you are advised that it appears from our records that Malinda Wright, mother of this child has been enrolled by the Commission as a full blood Chickasaw Indian and her enrollment has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior which brings this application within the pro-

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Ada, Indian Territory, November 10, 1902.

In the matter of the application for enrollment of George Berry as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Said George Berry, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A George Berry.
Q What is your age? A Forty-two years old.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Roff, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A About twelve (12) years.
Q Lived here continuously for the past twelve years? A Yes sir.
Q Have you made your home any place else during that time? A No sir.
Q Are you an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife? A Nancy Hays.
Q That was her maiden name ? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Her rights have never been questioned? A No sir.
Q When were you married to Nancy Hays? A In 1888, under the Texas law.
Q Where did this marriage take place? A I got my license at Clarksville, Texas, at that time. Then I was remarried.
Q The first marriage was under Texas law? A Yes sir.
Q Then were you afterwards married to the same woman? A Yes sir.
Q When was this second marriage? A 1896.
Q Where did this second marriage take place? A In Jackson County,
Q Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living in Jackson County at that time? A No sir, I was living in the Chickasaw Nation at that time.
Q Was your wife living there at that time? A No sir, she was living here with me.
Q Did you obtain a Choctaw license? A Yes sir.
Q How much did you pay for that license? A One hundred dollars.
Q From whom did you get the license? A I got it from the County Clerk there--D. F. Wade.
Q Since your first marriage to your wife Nancy Berry, have you lived together continuously as husband and wife? A Yes sir.
Q Been no separation, abandonment or desertion? A No sir.
Q Are you at present living together as husband and wife? A Yes sir.
Q Are you bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Why was it you went over to the Choctaw Nation to obtain your marriage license in 1896? A I just supposed when I went over there in that country--some of them got the idea that if we didn't marry under a Choctaw license we would lose our rights.
Q You were both living in the Chickasaw Nation at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Been living here for several years? A Yes sir.

George Berry-2

Were you ever married to any other woman besides Nancy Berry? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married to any other man? A No sir.

Dear Sir:

The Commission will open a Land Office at Atoka in the Choctaw Nation, during the month of September, 1900, at which time and place Choctaws and Chickasaws may make preliminary selections of their homestead allotments. Before this time it is desired that you furnish the Commission with information as to the parentage of your wife, Nancy Berry. The records show that she is full blood, a resident of the Chickasaw Nation, that she was on the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, but there is lacking the names of her father and mother to make the records complete. It will be necessary to have this information furnished before she can be allowed to make selection of her allotment. There is inclosed you herewith an envelope for reply which requires no postage. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elonzo W. Gallamore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, Elonzo W. Gallamore, was first married to E. P. Gallamore (nee Donley) on May 19, 1893, at Sherman, Texas, that afterwards on July 19, 1899, said parties were remarried in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, that the said E. P. Gallamore (nee Donley) is a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as Eva P. Gallamore, number 25 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, December 12, 1902; that at the time of said last marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and have lived together as husband and wife continuously ever since; that since his last marriage with said E. P. Gallamore the applicant had been a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation up to and including September 25, 1902; except for about two years he temporarily resided in New Mexico for the benefit of his wife's health, returning to the Territory in September 1902; that during the time the applicant was in New Mexico, he had property interests in the Territory and intended at all times while so absent to return thereto.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Joseph D. Yeargain et al., (I. T. D. 2900-1903) Elonzo W. Gallamore should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) and it is so ordered.

Elonzo W. Gallamore,

Care J. F. Sharp, Attorney at Law,

Purcell, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 26th instant in which you request to be informed if there is filed with the records of this Commission your marriage license and also as to what further proof it will be necessary for you to present to the Commission at the session at Ateka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

You are informed that there is filed with the records of this Commission, the marriage license and certificate under the laws of the Choctaw Nation of E. W. Gallamore and Miss M. P. Donly, having been married July 19th, 1899, said marriage license and certificate being recorded in the records of Cedar County, Choctaw Nation on Record Page 361.

As to what Further [illegible] will be necessary for you to bring before the Commission at its session at Ateka next December, you are informed that the Commission wrote you September 18th stating that the Commission was in possession of a sufficient statement of facts in your case upon which to base a decision and that it would not be necessary for you to appear at Ateka. The question raised as to your right to enrollment is under your second marriage, it appearing that you were first married to your wife, M. P. Donly in 1898 under the laws of the United States and subsequently married to her under the laws of the Choctaw Nation, July 19th, 1899. As to [illegible]

E. W. P.

Sure, the Commission fully indorses you in its letter of the 15th instant.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Alonzo W. Gallamoore,

Purcell, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Since notifying you on August 18, 1900, of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The question raised is to your right to enrollment under your second marriage.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

We hereby request, on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, that final decision in t is case be postponed until final decision by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of B. F. Thompson vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, No. 38 on the South McAlester Docket, in which the said court will decide the question of the validity of that portion of the intermarriage laws of the Choctaw Nation providing for the forfeiture of citizenship of white persons who separate from their Indian spouses, which question is involved in the case to which this communication refers.

This request is filed under authority granted by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior in his communication to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes upon the subject, dated November 18, 1903.

Lee Broughton, affiant herein, says that he is thirty-one years of age, and that he resides at Ada, in the Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory; that he is the identical Lee Broughton who married Ida Barnett in ~~Nov.~~ Oct 1893. That said marriage occurred at the home of Jack Barnett, ~~father~~ father of said Ida Barnett. That said Jack Barnett then resided and said marriage occurred in the country at a point about four or four and a half miles west of South from Allen, I. T. That said house where said marriage occurred was situated within a few feet of, and West of the line dividing the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations; that after said marriage was solemnized and before this affiant testified in this matter of his application for enrollment before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Ada, in November, 1902 the said line dividing said Nations was resurveyed, and at the point where the said home of said Jack Barnett had formerly lived and this affiant had been married the new line ran several yards West of the old line, and threw said house in the Choctaw Nation; that at the time this affiant testified at Ada he stated that he was married in the Choctaw Nation because he had in mind the fact that the place where he ~~was~~ married was at ~~that~~ the time he testified in said Nation. Affiant states that the house where he was married was at the time of his marriage in the Chickasaw Nation, and that he and Ida Barnett whom he married both resided in the Chickasaw Nation at the time of his marriage with her, and that he has resided continuously in the Chickasaw Nation since said marriage, in 1893, and had so resided in the Chickasaw Nation for a period of about two years before his said marriage with Ida Barnett.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lee Broughton as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on October 20, 1893 the applicant was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Ida B. Broughton (nee Barnett), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears as number 29 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902 but whose enrollment was cancelled by direction of the Secretary of the Interior on July 8, 1904, she having died July 11, 1895; that at the date of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that they lived together in said nation as husband and wife until the death of the said Ida B. Broughton in the year 1895; that thereafter the applicant was married to Rosie Doyle, a noncitizen, and that the applicant had been a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation since the date of his marriage with the said Ida B. Broughton in 1893 up to and including September 25, 1902.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission the applicant (as L. F. Broughton) is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 14355, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904) relative to the question of forfeiture, Lee Broughton should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Lewis et al vs The Choctaw Nation. I am the mother of Belle F.; Rhoda L.; Amanda P.; and Joseph W. Roper whose names also appear in said judgment. I am also the mother of Rufus M. Roper who was born since said judgment was rendered. At the time said suit for citizenship was filed myself and four oldest children, named above, were living in Pottawatomie County, Oklahoma Territory. In February 1898 I removed, with said children, to the Choctaw Nation where we continued to reside until August 1898 when we removed to the Chickasaw Nation. I first came to the Choctaw Nation with my parents in 1875 and continued to reside there until I went to Oklahoma Territory in 1892. My two oldest children, Belle F., and Rhoda L., were born in the Choctaw Nation before I went to Oklahoma Territory. My children Amanda P. and Joseph W. were born while I resided in Oklahoma Territory and Rufus M. was born in the Choctaw Nation since my return from Oklahoma Territory.

Edwards for the enrollment of herself and children, Charles Edwards, Lula J. Edwards, Martha J. Edwards, David L. Edwards and Luther W.

Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 5, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, by Joseph M. Edwards for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made on September 9, 1896, for the admission of certain of the applicants as citizens of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), the names of the applicants herein appearing in said application as follows: Zora P. Lewis, Edward M. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Gail B. Lewis, Zora A. Lewis, Edward M. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Laura A. Lewis, Antha Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Annie Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Marshal Cowart, Angeline Tabor, Willie L. Tabor, Benny H. Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Frank A Leard, Sadie E. Eeard, Nannie E. Leard, Maud Early, Hugh H. Early, Joseph M. Leard, Bell Leard, Madison L. Leard, Jackson A. Leard, Sarah Jane McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud T. McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben Zora S. Early, nee Lewis, Lucy Adams, nee Early, Nelly O. Early, Mable Adams, Ophelia S. Edwards, Joseph M. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Edwards, Martha J. Edwards and David L. Edwards. The names of George W. McKibben and Preston Early were also included in said application.

On December 4, 1896, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes denied the above application from which decision appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which Court on January 19, 1898, reversed the decision as to the above applicants and admitted said applicants to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

Said judgment was subsequently vacated, set aside and held for naught by a decree of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1902, in the test case of "Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes vs. J. T. Riddle, et al".

Said cause as to all the applicants herein except Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis was subsequently certified to the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), for a trial de novo and on December 3, 1904, in the case entitled "Zora P. Lewis, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations", said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment wherein it was "ordered adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Olivia Pryor, Gale B. Wooding or Gale B. Lewis or Gail B. Lewis, Marshall Cowart, Virgil Cowart, Angelina Adams or Angelina Tabor or Angeline Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Madison Leard or Madison L. Leard, Jack Leard, Maude Early, Hugh Early, Olivia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Lucy Adams, Nellie Goodwin or Nellie Early, George L. McKibbin or George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibbin or McKibben, Claud McKibbin or McKibben, Thomas P. McKibbin or McKibben, Frank A. Leard, Mabel Adams ... Zora A. Lewis, Edward M. Lewis, Sadie Leard, Nannie Leard, Ben Tabor, Herschel Tabor, Kyle Douglass or Douglas, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor or Mary E. Pryor . . . Andth L. Lewis or Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis . . . Joseph M. Leard, Sarah E. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Samual P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Anna Cowart and Belle Leard be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case of "Preston Harly, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Preston Harly, Joseph M. Edwards, George W. McKibbin or McKibben . . . be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case entitled "Ophelia S. Edwards, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Ophelia S. Edwards, David L. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lela Hayes or Lula Edwards and Martha J. Smith or Martha J. Edwards be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On January 19, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Earnest P. Adams, Ida Vadis Adams, Frank David Leard, Elihu Venable, Sallie O. Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Karl Pryor, Ruthe Adams and Leona Tabor. January 21, 1905, said Commission issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, Fielding Lewis Guyer, Albert Clarence Goodwin and Luther W. Edwards. On January 24, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Barney Edward Leard and David Leard. Said orders were based on the fact that the rights of the persons through whom the above applicants claim the right to enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation have been adversely determined by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On January 26, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the application for the enrollment of Grant McKibben for the reason that the rights of said applicant's brothers and sisters whose status as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation was identical with the status of said applicant had been adversely determined by said Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On the same date said Commission issued orders dismissing the application for the enrollment of Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation for the reason that the judgment of the United States Court of January 19, 1898, favorable to said applicants had been set aside by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court on December 17, 1902, and said cause as to said applicants was not certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial de novo.

On June 26, 1906, there was received at the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes a petition praying for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, George Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Frank Davis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Rhoda Cowart, Olivia Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George V. Cowart, Kyle Douglass,, Henry Jordan,

Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Olivia Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earle Pryor, Everett Pryor, Josie Pryor, William Early, William E. Hays, Cora Bailey, Samuel Douglas, Ethel Douglas, Henry Munn, Tula Munn, Zora S. Early, Preston Early, Lucy Adams, A. M. Adams, Nellie Goodwin, John Goodwin, Mabel Adams, Ernest Adams, Vadice Adams, Alvey Adams, Clarence Goodwin, Theodore Goodwin, Susan Early, Angeline Adams, John Adams, Julius Leard, Ludie Leard, Madison L. Leard, Eliza Leard, Jack Leard, Susie Leard, Joseph H. Leard, Belle Leard, Hugh Early, Maude Venable, John Venable, Willie Tabor, Benjamin Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Ruth Adams, Rufus Adams, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Barnie Leard, Dave Leard, Frank Leard, Roy Leard, Oma Leard, Elihu Venable, Alice Venable, Jewell Venable, Edward H. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Gail Wooding, John L. Wooding, Zora A. Guyer, William H. Guyer, Edward H. Lewis, Clinton L. Wooding, Lindley B. Guyer, Fielding L. Guyer, Edith Guyer, Jessa Lee Guyer, Rosa P. Guyer, Sarah J. McKibben, G. W. McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Ophelia Edwards, J. M. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Ratteree, Eugene Ratteree, Martha J. Smith, Oscar Smith, David Self, ____Self and Loeta Ratteree.

It is alleged in the petition that the petitioners are entitled to enrollment under the supervisory authority of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior as members of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of their Choctaw descent and their residence with said tribe.

The following persons mentioned in the petition are identical with the persons for whose enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495): Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Olivia Pryor, Earl Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George W. Cowart, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Edward H. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Joseph H. Leard, Belle Leard, Olivia Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Zora S. Early, Lucy Adams, Nellie Goodwin, Mabel Adams, Earnest Adams, Vadice Adams, Clarence Goodwin, Angeline Adams, Julius Leard, Madison L. Leard, Jack Leard, Hugh Early, Maud Venable, Willie Tabor, Benjamin Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Ruth Adams, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Barnie Leard, Dave Leard, Frank Leard, Elihu Venable, Gail Wooding, Zora A. Guyer, Edward H. Lewis, Lindley B. Guyer, Fielding L. Guyer, Edith Guyer, Sarah J. McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Ophelia S. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Ratteree, Martha J. Smith and J. M. Edwards.

Application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: July 20, 1906, Alva Adams, born January 5, 1905, minor daughter of A. M. Adams, and Lucy Adams;

July 23, 1906, Theodore Early Goodwin, born January 21, 1905, minor son of John T. Goodwin and Nellie Goodwin.

July 26, 1906, Clinton L. Wooding born June 23, 1905, minor son of John L. Wooding and Gail B. Wooding.

July 27, 1906, Jessie Fay Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer, born January 4, 1904 and March 22, 1905, respectively, children of J. W. Guyer and Zora A. Guyer.

It is not alleged in the petition that any of the petitioners herein ever occupied such a status as would entitledthem to enrollment as citizens by blood or intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; neither can any of the petitioners be identified with any of the persons whose names appear on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of this office.

Section one of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137) provides in part as follows:

"No motion to reopen or reconsider any citizenship case in any of said tribes shall be entertained unless filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the date of the order or decision sought to be reconsidered except as to decisions made prior to the passage of this Act, in which cases such motion shall be made within sixty days after the passage of this Act".

I am of the opinion that inasmuch as the petition herein was not filed within sixty days after the passage of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), I am without authority to receive or consider said petition in so far as same applies to those applicants for whose enrollment application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495).

I am, therefore, of the opinion that inasmuch as it does not appear from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that any of the applicants ever occupied such a status as would entitle them to enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, the decisions of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 3, 1904, are final and that the applications for the enrollment of Zora P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Nellie Early, Thomas P. Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Julius M. Leard, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, George L. McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claude McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Joseph H. Leard, Madison Leard, Jack Leard, Maud Early, now Maud Venable, Hugh Early, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary R. Pryor, Angeline Adams, formerly Tabor, Willie Tabor, Ben Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Zora A. Guyer, Lucy Adams, Mabel Adams, Gail B. Lewis, now Gail B. Wooding, Edward H. Lewis, Zora Jordan, Ophelia S. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula J. Ratteree, nee Edwards, Martha J. Smith, nee Edwards and David L. Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein, in so far as it applies to said applicants, should be dismissed and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application for the enrollment of Augusta M. Lewis, Anna Cowart, Sarah E. Lewis, Belle Leard and Joseph M. Edwards as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein in so far as same applies to said petitioners should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners Edward M. Lewis, Sarah J. McKibben, Ruth Adams, Leona Tabor, Sallie O. Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earl Pryor, Frank David Leard, Elihu Venable, Grant McKibben, Barnie Edward Leard, David Leard, Albert Clarence Goodwin, Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, Wedding Lewis Guyer, Earnest P. Adams and Ida Vadis Adams, whose applications for enrollment have heretofore been dismissed, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners G. W. McKibben, John L.

Wooding, William Early, William M. Guyer, John Adams, Leslie Leard, wife of Julius Leard, Eliza Leard, Susie Leard, John Venable, Frank Davis, George Clark, A. M. Adams, Preston Early, John Goodwin, Eugene Patterson, Oscar Smith, Rhoda Stewart, Davie Self and _____ Self, husband of Davie Self, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Emmett Pryor, Jessie Pryor, Cora Bailey, Samuel Douglass, Ethel Douglass, Henry Dunn, Lula Dunn, Jessie Lee Guyer, Rosa P. Guyer, Rufus Taber, Roy Leard, Ona Leard, Allice Venable, Jewell Venable, Leota Patterson and William M. Hays should be considered as an application for the enrollment of said persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137) and that inasmuch as said applications were not filed within the time limited by the provisions of said Act, the same should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application filed July 23, 1906 and July 24, 1906, for the enrollment of Alva Adams, Theodore Early Goodwin, Clinton L. Wooding, Jessie Way Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer and the petition herein in so far as same applies to said applicants should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made by Marshall Cowart for the enrollment of himself and his brothers, Samuel P. Cowart and George V. Cowart, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, during the month of August, 1899, by Lucy Adams for the enrollment of herself and herminor children, Mabel Adams and Earnest P. Adams, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on February 24, 1902, written application was filed for the enrollment of Ida Vadis Adams, minor child of said Lucy Adams and A. M. Adams as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 7, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Zora S. Early for the enrollment of herself and her daughter, Nellie Early, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Albert Clarence Goodwin, minor child of Nellie Goodwin, nee Early, and John Goodwin as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Joseph H. Leard for the enrollment of himself, Madison Leard, Jack Leard, Maud Early and Hugh Early as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and for the enrollment of his wife, Belle Leard, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that on February 28, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Frank David Leard, minor child of Madison Leard and Eliza Leard as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 29, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Elihu Venable, minor child of John Venable and Maud Venable as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Spiro, Indian Territory, by Olivia Pryor for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor and Sallie O. Pryor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 18, 1900, written applications were filed for the enrollment of Vernon Pryor and Earl Pryor, minor children of said Olivia Pryor and S. V. Pryor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 2, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Calvin, Indian Territory, by Angeline Tabor for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Willie Tabor, Ben Tabor, and Herschel L. Tabor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on March 1, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of Ruthe Adams, minor child of Angeline Tabor, (now Adams) and J. J. Adams, and on August 7, 1902, written application was filed for the enrollment of Leona Tabor, minor child of Angeline Tabor and Sherman Tabor as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on September 29, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Tishomingo, Indian Territory by Julius M. Leard for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Frank Leard, Sadie Leard and Nannie Leard as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on August 6, 1900, written application was filed for the enrollment of Barney Edward Leard and on November 1, 1901, written application was filed for the enrollment of David Leard, minor children of Sudie Leard and Julius M. Leard as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on June 14, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Spiro, Indian Territory, by Ophelia S. Edwards for the enrollment of herself and children, Charles Edwards, Lula J. Edwards, Martha J. Edwards, David L. Edwards and Luther W.

Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that o n August 5, 1899, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Hartshorne, Indian Territory, by Joseph M. Edwards for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that application was made on September 9, 1896, for the admission of certain of the applicants as citizens of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), the names of the applicants herein appearing in said application as follows: Zora P. Lewis, Edward M. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Gail B. Lewis, Zora A. Lewis, Edward H. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Laura A. Lewis, Antha Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jorden, Rhoda Jorden, Zora Jorden, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Annie Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Marshal Cowart, Angeline Tabor, Willie L. Tabor, Benny H. Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Frank A Leard, Sudie E. Eeard, Nannie E. Leard, Maud Early, Hugh H. Early, Joseph H. Leard, Bell Leard, Madison L. Leard, Jackson A. Leard, Sarah Jane McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud T. McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben Zora S. Early, nee Lewis, Lucy Adams, nee Early, Nelly O. Early, Mable Adams, Ophelia S. Edwards, Joseph M. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Edwards, Martha J. Edwards and David L. Edwards. The names of George W. McKibben and Preston Early were also included in said application.

On December 4, 1896, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes denied the above application from which decision appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, which Court on January 19, 1898, reversed the decision as to the above applicants and admitted said applicants to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

Said judgment was subsequently vacated, set aside and held for naught by a decree of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 17, 1902, in the test case of "Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes vs. J. T. Riddle, et al".

Said cause as to all the applicants herein except Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis was subsequently certified to the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court created under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), for a trial de novo and on December 3, 1904, in the case entitled "Zora P. Lewis, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations", said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment wherein it was "ordered adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Olivia Pryor, Gale B. Wooding or Gale B. Lewis or Gail B. Lewis, Marshall Cowart, Virgil Cowart, Angelina Adams or Angelina Tabor or Angeline Tabor, Julius M. Leard, Madison Leard or Madison L. Leard, Jack Leard, Maude Early, Hugh Early, Olivia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Lucy Adams, Nellie Goodwin or Nellie Early, George L. McKibbin or George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibbin or McKibben, Claud McKibbin or McKibben, Thomas P. McKibbin or McKibben, Frank A. Leard, Mabel Adams ... Zora A. Lewis, Edward M. Lewis, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Ben Tabor, Herschel Tabor, Kyle Douglass or Douglas, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor or Mary E. Pryor . . . Andth L. Lewis or Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis . . . Joseph M. Leard, Sarah E. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Anna Cowart and Belle Leard be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case of "Preston Early, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Preston Early, Joseph M. Edwards, George W. McKibbin or McKibben . . . be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On the same date said Citizenship Court rendered a judgment in the case entitled "Ophelia S. Edwards, et al, vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations" wherein it was "ordered, adjudged and decreed that the petition of the plaintiffs, Ophelia S. Edwards, David L. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lela Hayes or Lula Edwards and Martha J. Smith or Martha J. Edwards be denied and that they be declared not citizens of the Choctaw Nation and not entitled to enrollment as such citizens and not entitled to any rights whatever flowing therefrom".

On January 19, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Earnest P. Adams, Ida Vadis Adams, Frank David Leard, Elihu Venable, Sallie O. Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earl Pryor, Ruthe Adams and Leona Tabor. January 21, 1905, said Commission issued orders dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, Fielding Lewis Guyer, Albert Clarence Goodwin and Luther W. Edwards. On January 24, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the applications for the enrollment of Barney Edward Leard and David Leard. Said orders were based on the fact that the rights of the persons through whom the above applicants claim the right to enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation have been adversely determined by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On January 26, 1905, said Commission issued an order dismissing the application for the enrollment of Grant McKibben for the reason that the rights of said applicant's brothers and sisters whose status as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation was identical with the status of said applicant had been adversely determined by said Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

On the same date said Commission issued orders dismissing the application for the enrollment of Sarah J. McKibben and Edward M. Lewis as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation for the reason that the judgment of the United States Court of January 19, 1898, favorable to said applicants had been set aside by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court o n December 17, 1902, and said cause as to said applicants was not certified to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court for a trial de novo.

On June 26, 1906, there was received at the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes a petition praying for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, George Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Frank Davis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Rhoda Cowart, Olivia Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George V. Cowart, Kyle Douglass,, Henry Jordan,

Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Olivia Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earle Pryor, Emmett Pryor, Josie Pryor, William Early, William E. Hays, Cora Bailey, Samuel Douglas, Ethel Douglas, Henry Munn, Tula Munn, Zora S. Early, Preston Early, Lucy Adams, A. M. Adams, Nellie Goodwin, John Goodwin, Mabel Adams, Ernest Adams, Vadice Adams, Alvey Adams, Clarence Goodwin, Theodore Goodwin, Susan Early, Angeline Adams, John Adams, Julius Leard, Ludie Leard, Madison L. Leard, Eliza Leard, Jack Leard, Susie Leard, Joseph H. Leard, Belle Leard, Hugh Early, Maude Venable, John Venable, Willie Tabor, Benjamin Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Ruth Adams, Rufus Adams, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Barnie Leard, Dave Leard, Frank Leard, Roy Leard, Oma Leard, Elihu Venable, Allice Venable, Jewell Venable, Edward M. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Gail Wooding, John L. Wooding, Zora A. Guyer, William H. Guyer, Edward M. Lewis, Clinton L. Wooding, Lindley B. Guyer, Fielding L. Guyer, Edith Guyer, Jesse Lee Guyer, Rosa F. Guyer, Sarah J. McKibben, G. W. McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Ophelia Edwards, J. M. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Ratteree, Eugene Ratteree, Martha J. Smith, Oscar Smith, David Self, ____Self and Loeta Ratteree.

It is alleged in the petition that the petitioners are entitled to enrollment under the supervisory authority of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior as members of the Choctaw nation by virtue of their Choctaw descent and their residence with said tribe.

The following persons mentioned in the petition are identical with the persons for whose enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495): Zora P. Lewis, Thomas P. Lewis, Augusta M. Lewis, Lydia Clark, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Olivia Pryor, Earl Pryor, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, George W. Cowart, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, Zora Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Edward M. Lewis, Sarah E. Lewis, Joseph H. Leard, Belle Leard, Olivia Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Zora S. Early, Lucy Adams, Nellie Goodwin, Mabel Adams, Earnest Adams, Vadice Adams, Clarence Goodwin, Angeline Adams, Julius Leard, Madison L. Leard, Jack Leard, Hugh Early, Maud Venable, Willie Tabor, Benjamin Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Ruth Adams, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, Barnie Leard, Dave Leard, Frank Leard, Elihu Venable, Gail Wooding, Zora A. Guyer, Edward H. Lewis, Lindley B. Guyer, Fielding L. Guyer, Edith Guyer, Sarah J. McKibben, George Lewis McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claud McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Ophelia S. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula Ratteree, Martha J. Smith and J. M. Edwards.

Application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), for the enrollment of the following persons as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation: July 20, 1906, Alva Adams, born January 8, 1905, minor daughter of A. M. Adams, and Lucy Adams;

July 23, 1906, Theodore Early Goodwin, born January 21, 1905, minor son of John T. Goodwin and Nellie Goodwin.

July 24, 1906, Clinton L. Wooding born June 23, 1905, minor son of John L. Wooding and Gail B. Wooding.

July 20, 1906, Jessie Fay Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer, born January 4, 1904 and March 22, 1905, respectively, children of J. W. Guyer and Zora A. Guyer.

It is not alleged in the petition that any of the petitioners herein ever occupied such a status as would entitledthem to enrollment as citizens by blood or intermarriage of the Choctaw nation; neither can any of the petitioners be identified with any of the persons whose names appear on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of this office.

Section one of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137) provides in part as follows:

"No motion to reopen or reconsider any citizenship case in any of said tribes shall be entertained unless filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the date of the order or decision sought to be reconsidered except as to decisions made prior to the passage of this Act, in which cases such motion shall be made within sixty days after the passage of this Act".

I am of the opinion that inasmuch as the petition herein was not filed within sixty days after the passage of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), I am without authority to receive or consider said petition in so far as same applies to those applicants for whose enrollment application was made under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495).

I am, therefore, of the opinion that inasmuch as it does not appear from the records in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that any of the applicants ever occupied such a status as would entitle them to enrollment as citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, the decisions of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 3, 1904, are final and that the applications for the enrollment of Zora P. Lewis, Zora S. Early, Nellie Early, Thomas P. Lewis, Lawrence Lewis, Laura Lewis, Antha L. Lewis, Oscar Lewis, Lydia Clark, Virgil Cowart, Marshall Cowart, Samuel P. Cowart, George V. Cowart, Julius M. Leard, Frank Leard, Sudie Leard, Nannie Leard, George L. McKibben, Cassie O. McKibben, Claude McKibben, Thomas P. McKibben, Joseph H. Leard, Madison Leard, Jack Leard, Maud Early, now Maud Venable, Hugh Early, Olivia Pryor, Kyle Douglass, Henry Jordan, Rhoda Jordan, George Pryor, James Pryor, Mary E. Pryor, Angeline Adams, formerly Tabor, Willie Tabor, Ben Tabor, Herschel L. Tabor, Zora A. Guyer, Lucy Adams, Mabel Adams, Gail B. Lewis, now Gail B. Wooding, Edward H. Lewis, Zora Jordan, Ophelia S. Edwards, Charles Edwards, Lula J. Ratteree, nee Edwards, Martha J. Smith, nee Edwards and David L. Edwards as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein, in so far as it applies to said applicants, should be dismissed and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application for the enrollment of Augusta M. Lewis, Anna Cowart, Sarah E. Lewis, Belle Leard and Joseph M. Edwards as citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) and that the petition herein in so far as same applies to said petitioners should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners Edward M. Lewis, Sarah J. McKibben, Ruth Adams, Leona Tabor, Sallie O. Pryor, Vernon Pryor, Earl Pryor, Frank David Leard, Elihu Venable, Grant McKibben, Barnie Edward Leard, David Leard, Albert Clarence Goodwin, Lindly Blaine Guyer, Edith May Guyer, Wiedding Lewis Guyer, Earnest P. Adams and Ida Vadis Adams, whose applications for enrollment have heretofore been dismissed, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners G. W. McKibben, John L.

Wooding, William Early, William M. Guyer, John Adams, Lidie Leard, wife of Julius Leard, Alma Leard, Susie Leard, John Venable, Frank Davis, George Clark, A. M. Adams, Preston Early, John Goodwin, Eugene Ratteree, Oscar Smith, Rhoda Cowart, Davie Self and ____ Self, husband of Davie Self, should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the petition herein in so far as same applies to the petitioners, Emmett Pryor, Jessie Pryor, Cora Bailey, Samuel Douglass, Ethel Douglass, Henry Munn, Lula Munn, Jesse Lee Guyer, Rosa F. Guyer, Rufus Taber, Roy Leard, Gus Leard, Allice Venable, Jewell Venable, Leeta Ratteree and William E. Hays should be considered as an application for the enrollment of said persons as citizens by blood of the Cheetaw Nation under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137) and that inasmuch as said applications were not filed within the time limited by the provisions of said Act, the same should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

I am further of the opinion that the application filed July 23, 1906 and July 24, 1906, for the enrollment of Alva Adams, Theodore Early Goodwin, Clinton L. Wooding, Jessie Way Guyer and Rosa Lee Guyer and the petition herein in so far as same applies to said applicants should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 18, 1905.

Tobias J. Bailey,

Tyrola, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 8, 1905, in which you state that M. L. Leard, concerning whom you inquired in a previous letter was the son of Zora P. Lewis and that you have understood that an application was made by his mother for herself and her children Mathew L. Leard, Jack Leard and others; you ask to be advised when the application was made and when they were denied as you were contested by a man who bought land from Leard.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from the records of this office that Zora P. Lewis presented a petition to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1896 for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for herself and the members of her family. This application was denied by said Commission and appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Southern District of Indian Territory, which court on January 19, 1898 reversed this decision and admitted the applicants to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

On September 8, 1898, Joseph M. Leard made appliection for the enrollment of himself, his wife Belle Leard and his brothers and sisters Madison and Jack Leard and Maud and Hugh Early as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation pursuant to the judgment of the United States Court above referred to.

Appeal was subsequently taken in this case to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, which on December 3, 1904, denied the citizenship in the Choctaw Nation of all the persons included in the citizenship case of Zora P. Lewis et al. It does not appear from the record in this case that any person by the name of Mathew L. Leard was included but Madison L. Leard, brother of Jack Leard and half brother of Maud and Hugh Early was included in said case and it is believed that this must be the person referred to by you as Mathew L. Leard.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Frank David Leard for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

The applicant, Frank David Leard, claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation through his father, Madison Leard.

The right of the applicant's father, Madison Leard (as Madison Leard or Madison L. Leard), to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation having been adversely determined by a decree of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court of December 3, 1904, in case number 58 upon the South McAlester docket of said Court, it is hereby ordered that the application of Frank David Leard for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation be dismissed.

Q You had a place of your own down there? A Yes sir.
Q You two were living alone? A He had one child.
Q By another woman? A Yes sir.

Q Then he sent you away you say? A Yes sir, he sent me away.
Q What was the reason of that? A I dont know exactly what was the reason; he had taken her and fetched her home; I left in the morning and he fetched her there that evening that I left
Q Had you had any trouble before that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever have any quarrels or any words? A No sir.
Q You dont know any reason why he sent you away except he had this other woman? A I dont know any other reason; but maybe a white woman's ways did not suit him.
Q Was this other woman an Indian? A Yes sir, a Choctaw.
Q After you were sent away from his home where did you go? A Over in the Chickasaw Nation close to where I am living now.
Q Who did you live with after you came up here? A My father and mother.
Q They were up here were they? A Yes sir.
Q Did you obtain a divorce from him? A No sir.
Q Did he obtain a divorce from you? A Yes sir.
Q What were the grounds of that divorce? A I dont know.
Q Where did he obtain the divorce? A I couldn't tell you that.
Q You did not take enough interest in the matter to find out anything about it? A No sir, his sister said he got a divorce; and he married; but he lived with that woman a little over two years before he married her.
Q And up to the time he brought this woman into your house you had no idea there was anything wrong between you? A There was nothing wrong befween us.
Q You did not quarrel or have any words? A No sir, we got along peacefully.
Q What did he tell you when he sent you away? A He never told me anything; he just said he was going to send me off.
Q You did not know for what reason? A No sir, never asked him.
Q You just went right along? A Yes sir, just went along; he got so he would not stay at home; I did not want to leave him; but I thought if he hired my cousin to take me off it would not do any good to live with him.
Q Did you ever try to go back to live with him? A No sir.
Q Never made any attempt to? A Never did, no sir.
Q Did you ever see him again? A I saw him once to speak to him a short time after he married that woman; I saw him.
Q Were you ever married before you married Jerry Fulsom? A No sir.
Q Was he ever married before he married you? A Yes sir, he had been married three times.
Q All of his wives dead? A Two of them, and one living.
Q Had he been divorced from her? A I reckon he had.
Q What was this woman's name that was living at the time of your marriage? A I dont know whether she was living; his first wife was a white woman, and they sepafated, and he married Nancy Bohanan, and she died; then he married Katy Bohanan and she died, and then he married me.
Q You dont know whether this first wife was living or not? A No sir.
Q Do you know whether they were divorced? A No sir.
Q Was it generally understood that they were divorced? A I reckon so; his sister said he was.
Q Did you try to find out if they were divorced? A No sir, I never did know he had ever been married until after we were married.

Q After Jerry Fulsom sent you away did you marry again? A Yes sir.
Q How many times? A Twice.
Q What was the name of your first husband? A Scroggins.
Q His full name? A Bert Scroggins.
Q Was he a white man? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry him? A '92.
Q How long did you live with him? A A I forget just exactly; it lacked a little of being three years.
Q Did you leave him? A He left me.
Q Were you divorced? A No.
Q Did you marry another white man? A Yes sir.
Q What has becomeof the third man? A His name is Denny.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.

BEFORE THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ida Denny as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, Choctaw Field No. D-743.

- - - - - - -

We hereby request, on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, that final decision in this case be postponed until final decision by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of B. F. Thompson vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, No. 38 on the South McAlester Docket, in which the said court will decide the question of the validity of that portion of the intermarriage laws of the Choctaw Nation providing for the forfeiture of citizenship of white persons who separate from their Indian spouses, which question is involved in the case to which this communication refers.

This request is filed under authority granted by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior in his communication to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes upon the subject, dated November 18, 1903.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Ida Denney for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on January 6, 1887, the applicant was lawfully married to Jerry Folsom a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 6436, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 17, 1903; that at the date of said marriage both the persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together in said nation as husband and wife for about two and one half years when they separated and were subsequently divorced; that thereafter the applicant married Bert Scroggins, and subsequently married --- Denney both said persons being white men having no right of Choctaw citizenship by blood; that the applicant has been a resident in good faith of the Choctaw-Chickasaw country continuously since the date of her marriage to the said Jerry Folsom, January 6, 1887, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton [illegible] Pearce, (I. T. D. 4060-1904) relative to the question of forfeiture, Ida Denney should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 25th instant, in which you desire to be advised if Ida Denny was registered at Ada, Indian Territory, during this month, as a Choctaw.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Ida Denney is an applicant to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation and on November 11, 1902, she appeared before the Commission at Ada, Indian Territory, and testified as to her status as an intermarried citizen on the 25th day of September, 1902, the date of the ratification of the Choctaw-Chickasaw agreement by the citizens of these two tribes. The Commission has not up to this time rendered a decision in the matter of the application of Ida Denney for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that under direction of the Secretary of the Interior of November 18, 1903, and upon a protest filed with the Commission by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations dated January 23, 1904, no further action will be taken relative to your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation until the Commission is further instructed by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory. October 21, 1904.

Ida Denney,

Francis, Indian Territory.

dear Madam:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission is unable to identify your former husband, Jerry Folsom, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. You are requested to, at once, advise the Commission of the name of the woman he married after his separation from you, and whether or not he has any children who have been enrolled by the Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. With this information, the Commission will probably be able to identify him on the rolls.

From your evidence, given in November, 1902, it appears that, at the time of your marriage, he had been married on three different occasions, and that two of his former wives were then dead, but as to his first wife, you state that you do not know whether or not she was living at the time of his marriage to you, nor do you know whether any divorce was secured by him from her. It will be necessary that you furnish the Commission with evidence that all of his former wives were dead, at the time of your marriage to him, or, if he had been divorced from any of them, you must furnish the Commission with either the original or a certified copy of the decree of divorce.

You are further advised that you must furnish the Commission with the original or a certified copy of your marriage license and certificate of marriage to the said Jerry Folsom.

You will please give this matter immediate attention, as, until the desired evidence is furnished, no further action will be taken in the matter of your application.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert L. Hensley as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Robert L. Hensley, on April 17, 1866, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Phoebe Hensley (nee Goins), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears on the 1893 Choctaw pay-roll, Chickasaw District, page 27, No. 272, who died May 8, 1895; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said Nation until the death of said Phoebe Hensley in 1895, since which time the applicant herein continued to reside in said Nation, and has not remarried, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Robert L. Hensley should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Thomas J. West as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on May 22, 1861 the applicant, Thomas J. West, was lawfully married to Jane Perkins, a recognized citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that said marriage ceremony was performed in the Chickasaw Nation; that the applicant and said Jane Perkins lived together continuously as husband and wife from the date of said marriage until about 1870, when they separated and were divorced; that in 1871 the applicant was lawfully married to Isabelle Robinson, a recognized citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that the applicant and said Isabelle Robinson lived together continuously from the date of their said marriage until the death of the said Isabelle Robinson about 1880; that in 1882 the applicant was lawfully married to Mary Baker, a white woman, having no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood; and that the applicant had resided continuously in the Chickasaw Nation from the date of his said marriage with the said Jane Perkins in 1861 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It appears from the census card record in this case that the applicant has a son, Robert West, by said Isabelle Robinson, and that the name of said Robert West appears as number 39 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 15196, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Thomas J. West should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

vs. No.

T. J. West

In the matter of the application of T. J. West for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

On December 11th, 1900, at a session of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Atoka, Indian Territory, the above entitled cause being called for further hearing, and the Choctaw Nation appearing by its counsel, Mr. Melvin Cornish, and the applicant appearing by his attorney Mr. A. Telle, as well as in person, the following proceedings were had, viz:

MR. BIXBY: (Acting Chairman of Commission) What is the contention of the Nation in this case, Mr Cornish?
MR. CORNISH: (Counsel for Choctaw Nation) It is a question of separation and abandonment.

THOMAS J. WEST, being sworn by Acting Chairman Bixby, was examined in his own behalf by Mr. A. Telle, and testified as follows:
Q What is your name? A Thomas J. West.
Q Where do you live? A Pontotac County, Chickasaw Nation.
Q What is your post office? A ewton, I T.
Q What is your age? A I am sixty-two years old.
Q I will ask you if you were notified to appear here on account of protest against your enrollment? A I suppose it was for me. I got a notice that had been around to several Thomas Wests; finally it got to me. I suppose it was for me.
Q Well, did you appear before the Dawes Commission before on this same matter? A No, sir.
Q I mean for enrollment? A Yes, sir; at Stonewall, I believe it was.
Q I will ask you whether or not you were regularly enrolled there? A I think I was. I don,t think there was any objection.
Q I will ask you how you became a citizen of the Choctaw Nation A By intermarriage.
Q When were you married to a Choctaw? A In 1861
Q In 1861? A Yes, sir.
Q What Choctaw Woman did you marry? A Jane Perkins.
Q Where is Jane Perkins? A She is dead.
Q Did you live with her up until the time of her death? A No, sir.
Q You were separated from her were you? A Yes, sir.
Q Were youdivorced from her? A Yes, sir.
Q Who procured the divorce, you or her? A She did.
Q Were you notified of the divorce proceedings? A No, sir; I was not there.
Q Did you have any notice that such a proceedings was to be filed? A Not until she got her divorce. I was away about a week or ten days before that in the Chickasaw Nation buying some cattle and I came back and understood that she had went into court and got a divorce.

Q Since her death have you remarried? A Yes sir, married in 1882.
Q What is the name of your third wife? A Mary Baker.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes sir.

In the matter of the application for enrollment of Thomas J. West as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Said Thomas J. West,being first duly sworn,testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A Thomas J. West.
Q How old are you? A Sixty-three.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Francis.
Q Is Francis in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Chickasaw Nation? A I came to the Chickasaw Nation in the Fall of 1858.
Q Have you lived here ever since? A Yes sir.
Q Never ma e your home any place else? A No sir.
Q Are you an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife through whom you claim citizenship? A I've been married twice--my first wife was Jane Perkins and my second was Isabelle Robinson.
Q Through whom do you claim your citizenship rights? A My last wife.
Q When were you married to your first wife? A The twenty-second day of May,1861.
Q Where did this marriage take place? A In the Chickasaw Nation, Panola County.
Q Were you married in accordance with the Chickasaw law? A Yes sir.
Q Did you obtain a license? A No sir, they didn't require any license then.
Q At that time there was no means of procuring a license? A No sir.
Q How long did you live with Jane Perkins? A About ten years.
Q Until her death? A No sir, we separated.
Q Did you obtain a divorce? A She did.
Q When were you married a second time? A In 1871.
Q This second marriage was to Isabelle Robinson? A Yes sir.
Q Was she a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Her rights were never questioned? A No sir.
Q Where were you married to Isabelle Robinson? A Married near Stonewall, Pontotoc County.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Judge Isaac Perry.
Q Did you obtain a license? A No sir, no license was required at that time.
Q Was there any means of procuring a license at that time from the tribal authorities? A Not that I know of.
Q You never knew of anyone procuring a license at that time? A No sir.
Q How long did you live with Isabelle Robinson? A About ten years.
Q Did you live with her until her death? A Yes sir.
Q From the time of your marriage until her death there was no separation,abandonment or divorce,was there? A No sir.

Q Well, about what time was it that you went to the Chickasaw Nation to buy cattle? A It was along in 1870; I don't recollect exactly what time it was, but it was in the spring of the year I think.

Q How long were you gone on that trip? A About ten days; it might have been two weeks.

Q Ten days or two weeks? A Yes, sir; somewhere along there; I don't recollect just exactly.

Q Well, was your wife at home when you left? A Yes, sir; she was there.

Q Had you been living in peace with her then? A Well, no, not exactly. She was a woman that was some older than me and she was jealous, and every once in a while we used to have a little trouble and falling out and so on. Tales would get out through the neighborhood and make a good deal of trouble sometimes.

Q Well, did she intimate to you before she left that she was going to apply for a divorce? A No, sir.

Q Then, if I understand you, you were living with her as man and wife up to the time you made this trip into the Chickasaw Nation and were gone about ten days or two weeks, and when you returned she notified you that she had procured a divorce from you while you were gone? A She didn't notify me. I got a notice from the court--court was insession at the time. She didn't say anything about it. I heard about it and was notified to come up to the court.

Q But the divorce had already been granted before you received your notice? A. Yes, sir..

Q I will ask you whether you married under the law regulating intermarriage at the time of your marriage or not? A I was married by an ordained minister who had a right to marry me.

Q Was that all that was required by the Choctaw law with reference to intermarriage at that time? A That was all the known law we had at that time.

Q Then you married in accordance with the existing laws? A Yes, sir.

Q And you were divorced in the way you have described? A Yes, sir; by the Choctaw law.

Q Then, what did you do?--did you marry again? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did you marry then? A I married Isabel Robinson.

Q Who was she? A She was the daughter of Emisia Robinson.

Q What was she with reference to nationality? A She was a Choctaw.

Q Did you live with her up until the time of her death? A Yes, sir.

Q When was the time of her death? A Let's see--I think it was---I think when she died we had lived together about ten years, maybe eleven--it was 1880, I think.

Cross-examination waived.

Witness excused.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James R. Chandler as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that James R. Chandler, on October 5, 1896, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Nettie Chandler (nee West), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 45 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that James R. Chandler should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 6, 1901.

In the matter of the application ofor enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, of Virginia West; she having been first duly sworn by Acting Chairman Bixby, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A Virginia West.
Q How old are you? A Twenty four/
Q What is your postoffice address? A Newton.
Q Where is Newton? A Its exactly where I live - right close to Francis, up on the Canadian.
Q In the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A I have been living there about ten years.
Q Have you lived there continuously for the past ten years? A Yes sir; near on to eleven years I guess now.
Q In the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your father's name? A Lawson Nichols.
Q Is your father living? A No sir; he is dead.
Q What is your mother's name? A Mary Nichols; Mary Smoot now; she has been married a gooddeal.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir; she was the last time I heard from her.
Q Your parents are both white people? A Yes sir.
Q Ever make any claim to Indian citizenship by blood? A No sir.
Q Have you? A No sir.
Q You are now making application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A Albert West.
Q Is he a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Is he living? A No sir; he has been dead about three months.
Q How old would he have been if he was living? A I don't know for certain; about twenty-eight though, I think, or twenty nine.
Q What was his father's name? A Thomas West.
Q What was his mother's name? His mother is dead; her name was Isabelle, I think.

The name of Albert West, twenty six years of age, of Newton, Indian Territory, is found on Choctaw roll card, field number 31, and there is a notation thereon that he died on the 21st day of November, 1900; there is also filed with the records in this case, proof of death of said Albert West.

When was you married to Albert West? A It has been eight year the first day of January.
Q That would be January 1, 1893; is that right? A Yes sir; I think it was 1893.
Q Where were you married to him? A In the Seminole Nation.
Q Where were you and your husband living at ~~that~~ the time you were married? A At the time we were married?
Q Yes? A We were married right close to where we live now.
Q In the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir; we didn't live more than three miles from where we were married.

Q Why were you married in the Seminole Nation? A We just went over there to get married. We had to go over there to get married at the Mission.
Q Were you married under a license? A A kind of a certificate; you have got it here.
Q When you and your husband married, what did you do? A I don't know what we did do.
Q I mean, did you and ~~he~~ your husband agree to get married and get someone to marry you? A Yes sir.
Q Never got any license? A No sir; we didn't have to get any license; the Indians all said they didn't have to get any license.
Q That is your opinion, is it? A That is what they all said; they sent the certificate down here.
Q Then this certificate of W.P.Blake as to your marriage to Albert West on January 1, 1893, is the only paper you ~~he~~ obtained in reference to your marriage is it? A Yes sir.
Q

h There is filed with the application of Albert West, and his children, for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, a certificate of W.P.Blake as to the marriage of Albert West and Miss V.L.Nichols, January 1,1893.

Q Is this the only time you was ever married to your husband? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married to anybody else? A No sir.
Q And the only marriage you have ever been a party to was this marriage? A Yes sir.
Q That this man Blake performed between you and your husband; is that correct? A Yes sir.
Q You have not married since your husband's death? Have you? A No sir
Q Still a widow? A Yes sir.
Q Have you ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A No sir.
Q Did they refuse to enroll you? A Never tried.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Virginia Henson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the record herein that on January 1, 1893, the applicant, Virginia Henson (nee Nichols) was lawfully married to Albert West, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 14166, enrolled thereon as a citizen by blood of said nation; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that they lived together continuously as husband and wife from the date of said marriage until the death of the said Albert West on November 21, 1900; that thereafter, in August 1901, the applicant was married to Elijah Henson a white man having no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood, and that the applicant had been a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation from the date of her said marriage to said Albert West up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, and the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6818-1904), Virginia Henson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Zachariah Daniel Allen as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Zachariah Daniel Allen, on September 29, 1898, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Rebecca Shelby (nee Harrison), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears as No.57 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously as husband and wife in said Nation since the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Zachariah Daniel Allen should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 14, 1905.

In the matter of the ~~appli~~ alleged application for the enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, of Pearl Roff.

Guy P. Cobb, Esq., of Ardmore, Indian Territory, appearing as attorney for the applicant.

Pearl Roff being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A Pearl Roff.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Lula, Indian Territory.
Q Do you claim that an application has been made for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Where was that application made, and in what form?
A In 1901.
Q Was that application made by you in person? A Yes sir.
Q You personally made the application? Do you mean that you personally appeared before the Commission and applied? A Yes sir
Q Where did you make that appearance? A At Ada.
Q You personally appeared before the Commission at Ada in 1901, and applied for enrollment? A Yes sir.
Q Who did you see at that time? A I don't know who it was.
Q Did you see any member of the Dawes Commission at that time that you know of? A No, I don't know them.
Q What month in 1901 was it that you made this appearance?
A I don't know, myself.
Q You don't remember what month it was? A No, I don't.
Q But you are sure that you did personally appear before the Commission at Ada in 1901? A Yes sir.
Q What did you state to the person before whom you made that appearance? (No answer)
Q What did you say to them? A I told them that I thought I ought to have the land; I applied for it, and I had been working for it.
Q What did he say? A He talked like it would be all right; that I would get it all right.
Q Can you tell me what he said? Whether he said that your application was received or not, or anything at all about it?
A No, I can't; I have simply forgotten what he did say, it is so long.
Q You don't know who it was that did the talking? A No, I don't.
Q But you are quite sure that it was somebody representing the Dawes Commission? A Yes sir.
Q Was anyone with you at that time? A My husband was with me.
Q Besides this appearance which you say was made at Ada, did you do anything else towards securing your enrollment since that time? A Yes, we tried several times since that; we went to Atoka last summer.

Q Between the time you appeared at Ada in 1901, and the time that you went to Atoka last summer, did you do anything during that period? A We never did anything only written letters and answered them.
Q You wrote letters? A Yes.
Q To whom did you write your letters? A I don't know.
Q Did you, yourself, write any letters? A I don't--my husband did the writing.
Q What is the name of the Indian husband through whom you claim your rights. A What is the name of my husband?
Q Yes? A Andrew V. Roff.
The husband of the applicant, Andrew V. Roff, is identified on Choctaw Field Card No. 39 and as No. 70 on the final roll of citizens by blood, approved December 12, 1902.
Q Do you know whether any response was received to the letters which you say your husband wrote? A No sir.
Q You don't know whether any reply was received from the Commission at all, or not? A Well, we got one or two I think, answered.
Q Do you know when your husband wrote those letters? A He wrote one in 1901 I think.
Q Do you remember the contents of that letter that was written in 1901? A No, I don't.
Q Can you give me the substance of it? Do you know what he said in that letter? A No, just all I know, he said he was writing about the land business.

By Mr. Cobb:
Q Do you mean about the land business or about your enrollment? A About my enrollment of course; that's what I am speaking about.

By the Commission.
Q When were you married to Andrew V. Roff? A I couldn't tell what year it was.
By Mr. Cobb: The marriage license shows it waa the 16th day of April, 1900
Q Is that right? A Yes sir.
Q At that time where were you living? A Roff, Indian Ter.
Q In the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Where was your husband living at that time? A He was living right there too.
Q Were you married under a United States license? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had you ever been married before? A No sir.
Q Had your husband ever been married before he married you?
A Yes sir.
Q How many times had he been married? A He had been married once I reckon; all I know.
Q Was his former wife living at that time? A Living.
Q Had he secured a divorce from her? A Yes sir.
Q Where have you lived since you were married to him?
A Lived in the Choctaw Nation
Q Where in the Choctaw Nation? A At Lula.
Q Did you take up your residence at Lula immediately after you were married? A We lived on the Canadian river.
Q Did you live in the Choctaw Nation immediately after you were married? A No sir.

Q You lived in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes.
Q How long did you continue to live in the Chickasaw Nation after you were married? A About three years.
Q So that from the time you were married up to September 25, 1902, you were a resident of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Examination by Mr. Cobb:
The records of the Commission show that your marriage license was filed with the Commission on the 3rd day of October, 1901, and that at that time there was also filed a birth affidavit concerning the birth of Cleo Estelle Roff, in which you state that you are a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; did you sign that birth affidavit? A Yes sir.
Q And at the time you signed it you claimed to be a citizen by intermarriage? A Yes sir.
Q You stated in your testimony a moment ago, that your husband wrote a letter to the Commission in 1901?
A Yes sir.
Q There is a lettter on file with the Commission received on the 28th day of October, 1901, relative to your enrollment. At that time were you an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether or not your husband went before the Commission during the year 1902 in connection with your application for enrollment? A Yes, I think so.
Q Then at all times from 1901 up to the present time, you have claimed your right to be enrolled as a citizen by intermmarriage? A Yes sir.

Examination by the Commission.
Q You state that on October 28, 1901, you were an applicant for enrollment; what had you done in the line of applying for enrollment prior to that time? A Well, we had been trying to.
Q What had you done in that line? A Well, just been writing letters to the Commission.
Q Were those letters written before or after this appearance which you say that you made at Ada? A It was before.
Q You had not applied at Ada at the time that your husband wrote these letters? A No sir.
Q What had you done? Had you written some other letters?
A We had written letters.

Witness excused.

Andrew V. Roff, being first duly sworn testified as follows:
Examination by the Commission:
Q What is your name? A Andrew V. Roff.
Q Are you the husband of Pearl Roff who has just testified?
A Yes sir.
Q She claims to have apeared at Ada in 1901 to make application for enrollment? Do you know anything about that? A No, I don't . We was at Ada, but I don't know what she did.
Q You say she was at Ada? A She was there along about that time, but I don't know whether she talked with them.
Q Were you there with her? A No sir.

Q Do you know whether the Commission was there in session at that time? A No, I don't know anything about that application at all, if anything was done in 1901 at Ada.
Q Have you any knowledge of any application at all that was ever made for your wife's enrollment? A I went before the Commission at Ada in 1902.
Q Prior to your appearance before this Commission in 1902, had you done anything except to write that letter? A What letter?
Q That letter in 1901? A The Dawes Commission wrote me a letter and asked me why I had not applied for enrollment for my wife.
Q When was it that the Dawes Commission wrote you that letter asking you why you had not applied for your wife's enrollment? A October, 1901.
Q What was the cause of their writing that letter? A I don't know what was the cause; it was when I enrolled my daughter Cleo Estelle that they wrote the letter and asked me why I didn't apply for enrollment for my wife.
Q Then the application that you made for your daughter was the occasion for the letter from the Commission written to you about your wife? A Yes, I wrote that.

The applicant refers to a letter bearing date October 24, 1901, relative to the enrollment of his wife; a copy of said letter is attached hereto.

Q Did you receive any reply from the Commission to this letter which you wrote them? A No, I never did.
Q Did you take any further steps towards securing your wife's enrollment after you wrote this letter? A Never until I went to Ada in 1902.
Q What month was that? A It was in November.
Q Who did you see then? Do you know? A I don't know their names; I went before the Commission.
Q You are sure that the Commission was there? A Yes, they was there.
Q What did you state to the Commission? A I told them that I wanted to enroll my wife; they said that they was not tending to that business; that they was then taking the affidavits of those that was dead; they was not taking new applications at all.
Q Was your wife with you at that time? A No, not in Ada, she wasn't; she was at Roff.
Q At the time you married Pearl Roff, had you ever been married before? A Yes sir.
Q Was your former wife liveing? A Yes, she is living yet.
Q Was she living at the time you married Pearl Roff? A Yes sir.
Q Had you secured a divorce from her? A Yes sir.
Q Have you that divorce with you? A No sir.
Q Is it in your possession? A No sir.
Q In what court was that divorce secured? A Ardmore court.
Q United States court at Ardmore? A Yes sir.
Q When did you secure that divorce? A It is hard for me to tell.
Q Well, about how long before you married Pearl Roff?
A Just about three years.
Q What is the name of your first wife? A Agnes V. Clary.
Q Was this Agnes the only woman to whom you had been married prior to your marriage with Pearl Roff? A Yes sir.
Q What was your residence at the time you married Pearl Roff.

A At Roff, Indian Territory.
Q In the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Where was she living at that time? A Roff.
Q How long did you continue to live in the Chickasaw Nation after you were married to her? A About three years I think.
Q And you are still living with Pearl Roff as her husband?
A Yes sir.
Q There has never been any separation of any kind? A No sir.

Examination by Mr. Cobb.
Q At the time you filed the birth affidavit in the matter of Cleo Estelle Roff at the time you wrote the letter received by the Commission on October 8, 1901, was it your desire that your wife be enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw nation?
A Yes sir.
Q And when you went before the Commission in November, 1902, you tried to have her enrolled at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Roff, in the letter of October 28, 1901, it was your reason given in that letter that your wife had not been enrolled because you were not married in accordance with the Choctaw law?
A Yes. I asked them about that; I told them that I had been informed she could not be enrolled and asked them in the letter that I wrote them. I thought I did.
Q You had the impression that that was the reason that she had not already been enrolled? A Yes, I had that impression.

Witness excused.

Pearl Roff being recalled, testified as follows:
Examination by the Commission:
Q You are a white woman, are you? A Yes sir.
Q You have no Indian blood at all? A No sir.
Q What are the names of your parents? A Frank Moore and Penney Moore.
Q Are they living? A Yes sir.
Q Both living? A Yes sir.
Q Both United States citizens? A Yes sir.

Witness excused.

Dear Sirs:

I received your letter stating that the mother of the child, Cleo Estelle Roff, is only sixteen years of age. She was 19 years old the 2 day of August last and has not been listed for enrollment because we were not married Married according to the Choctaw laws.

Yours with respect.

(Signed) Andy V. Roff.

P. S. The mistake of the age was probably made by the man that I got to write the letter; I can't see any other cause.

But I know of several people that are holding rites and were married according to the United States laws, Reg. at Stone Wall where I did, and I think my wife is entitled to Inrollment if they are.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

----------o----------

In the matter of the alleged application for the enrollment of Pearl Roff as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

----------o----------

It appears from the record herein that on June 14, 1905, Pearl Roff appeared in person before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and presented testimony relative to an application alleged to have been made for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641).

The applicant claims to have made personal application to said Commission for her enrollment, at Ada, Indian Territory, in November, 1901, and that her husband was with her at that time. She also testifies that her husband wrote a letter to said Commission in the year 1901, which she alleges was intended as an application for her enrollment.

Andrew V. Roff, husband of the applicant, testifies that he made application for the enrollment of said Pearl Roff at Ada, Indian Territory, but that the same was made in November, 1902, and not in 1901 as claimed by his wife. He further states that he was advised by the Commission at that time, that they were not taking new applications.

It appears from the records of said Commission that on October 24, 1901, said Andrew V. Roff addressed a letter to said Commission in which he states that the reason that his wife had not been listed for enrollment was because they had not been married according to the Choctaw law, and adds that he knew of several other people who were married under United States law who had been enrolled and that, in his opinion, his wife was entitled to enrollment if they were.

It further appears from the records of said Commission that on October 3, 1901, there was filed a marriage license and certificate of marriage between A. V. Roff and the present applicant, and that on said date there was also filed a written application for the enrollment of Cleo Estelle Roff (born August 23, 1901), as a citizen by blood, which application consists in part of the affidavit of said Pearl Roff that she is a citizen by marriage of the Choctaw Nation, is the wife of Andy V. Roff, and is the mother of said Cleo Estelle Roff.

I am of opinion that the filing with said Commission of said marriage license and said written application for the enrollment of Cleo Estelle Roff, should be considered as a sufficient application for the enrollment of Pearl Roff as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, made within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641),, and that said application should now be determined on the merits, and it is so ordered.

You are further advised that before said application can be finally determined it will be necessary for you to file with this office evidence of divorce between your husband, Andrew V. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Pearl Roff as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--DECISION.--

It appears from the record herein that the application for the enrollment of Pearl Roff as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation was duly made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641).

It further appears from the record herein that on April 17, 1900, the applicant, Pearl Roff, was lawfully married to Andrew V. Roff, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 70 upon the lists prepared by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage, both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said nation from the date of their marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

I am therefore of opinion that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6818-1904), Pearl Roff should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Joe Roff for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: O P I N I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, Joe Roff, on February 9, 1871, was married to David Anna Roff (nee Mills), a recognized citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose children by said marriage, Andrew V. Roff and William D. Roff are identified, numbers 70 and 72 respectively, upon the roll prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved Jul. 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, December 13, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both the applicant and his said wife were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and lived together in said Nation as husband and wife until the death of said David Anna Roff in the year 1883; that in the year 1888 the applicant was married to Lillie Brawley, from who he was afterwards divorced, and in the year 1891 was married to Mary McGallion, neither of whom had any rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood. The name of the applicant (as Joe B. Roff) appears on the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 14012, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation from the time of his marriage February 9, 1871, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Joe Roff should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, rendered October 15, 1904, granting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been furnished a copy of this decision and have been allowed fifteen days from the date of this notice within which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling you as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed, your name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Roff, Indian Territory,
Dear Sir,-

You are hereby notified that the Choctaw Nation through its attorneys, Messrs McKennon, Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, has filed with this Commission a noticie of protest to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December, 3rd, 1900, hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Choctaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in this case, and this hearing will be final.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Ardmore, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 30th of August enclosing authority from Joseph Roff, to act as his attorney in the matter of the protest filed by the attorneys of the Choctaw Nation against his enrollment as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians.

You desire to be furnished with a copy of the said protest and if the Commission cannot furnish you with a copy of the same, that you be informed as to the grounds upon which said protest has been made. You are informed that the Commission cannot at this time comply with your request for the reason that so far the Commission has only been furnished with a list of persons in the Choctaw Nation against whose enrollment the Nation has made an objection. In justice to these parties the Commission has informed each one of them that such a protest has been filed and has also required of the attorneys for the Choctaw Nation that they prior to October 31, 1900, serve upon each of the said parties whose rights to enrollment they have protested, a notice stating therein the grounds upon which such objection is made. The Commission has not set any special day for the hearing of any special cases but beginning December 3rd the Commission will endeavor to dispose of as many of these cases each day as possible and all parties interested who desire to appear before the Commission should be ready to make their appearance at that date. At this session of the Commission there will be heard such oral testimony as either the applicants or the Nation may desire to present and the Commission will also receive for its consideration written briefs or arguments submitted by either party in support of their application.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

------:O:------

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Orlener James as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, Orlener James (formerly Breeden), was lawfully married, on December 5, 1900, to Henry C. James, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 74 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have continued to live together in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Orlener James should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the application of Robert G. Brady for enrollment as an intermarried Choctaw; being sworn and examined by Com'r McKennon he states:

Q What is your name? A Robert G. Brady.

Q How old are you? A Twenty-eight.

Q You present here a marriage license issued by the County and Probate Judge of Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation, September 6th 1899, to marry Salina Moran, were you ever married to her before? A Yes sir.

Q When? A March, 1898.

Q Where? A In Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation.

Q Under a United States license? A Yes sir.

Q Were you separated or divorced from her? A No sir.

Q This is a second marriage? A Yes sir.

Q Was she admitted by the court, or was she a regular citizen? A She is a regular citizen.

Q Has she been living here all the while? A She has been here eight years.

Q She must have been admitted by the court then wasn't she? A I suppose so.

Q Wasn't she admitted by the court at Ardmore? A No sir, her right has been proved up twenty years I think.

Q How is it she has been living here only eight years? A I think her grandmother proved up her rights in 1879, I believe it was.

(Choc.Com.Clerk,A.Telle, informs the Commission that Selina Moran was admitted in the same act with Marmaduke Moran.)

Robert G. Brady being duly sworn testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A Robert G. Brady.
Q What is your age? A Thirty.
Q What is your post office address? A Jesse.
Q Is that in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A About ten year.
Q Lived here continuously for the past ten years? A Yes sir.
Q Never made your home anywhere else during that time? A No sir.
Q Do you claim intermarried rights in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Indian wife through whom you claim those rights? A Selina Moran.
Q Is she a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Her rights never have been questioned? A No sir.
Q When were you married to Selina Moran? A November, 1899.
Q Where did that marriage take place? A In the Chickasaw Nation down below Jesse.
Q Were both you and your wife, Selina, bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married to her in accordance with the Chickasaw law? A Yes sir.
Q Did you procure a marriage license? A Yes sir.
Q Who did you get that license from? A Judge Wolf.
Q How much did you pay for it? A Fifty dollars.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Preacher Dennis.
Q Were you ever married before your marriage to Selina Moran? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married before her marriage to you? A No sir.
Q Since this marriage in 1899 have you lived together continuously as husband and wife? A Yes sir.
Q There has been no separation, abandonment or divorce? A No sir.
Q Are you at present living together as bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married to Selina Moran before? A I was married once before to her.
Q When was that? A In 1898.
Q Where was this marriageceremony performed? A Down close to

Robert G Brady- --2

Hunton, about two miles below where I lived when I married the Second time.

Q Did you procure a license that time? A Yes sir.
Q Was that a United States license? A Yes sir.
Q Had you separated from her? A No sir.
Q You were simply remarried under a Chickasaw license? A Yes sir; they claimed in 1898 that there was no license; that I couldn't get any Chickasaw license in 1898; and they ratified the treaty in August and voted the Indian law back good for eight year, as this man Telle told me.
Q You attempted to procure a Chickasaw tribal license at the time you were married first? A Yes sir, I guess so.
Q You couldn't get one? A No sir, not the first time, not an Indian license.
Q So you remarried her under the Indian law in 1899? A Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert G. Brady as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on September 8, 1899, the applicant, Robert G. Brady, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Selina Brady (nee Moran), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 15159 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 26, 1904; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said nation from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Robert G. Brady should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John C. Allen as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chocktaw Nation.

Said John C. Allen, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A John Curtis Allen.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-seven years old.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Brady, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A About twenty two or twenty-three years.
Q Maintained a continuous residence here for that length of time? A No sir, I've been in and out.
Q What do you mean by that? A I've been in other countries part of the time but here most of the time.
Q How long have you actually been residing in the Chickasaw Nation this last time? A About thirteen years.
Q Haven't made your home elsewhere for the past thirteen years? A No sir.
Q You are a white man? A Yes sir.
Q An applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife? A Mary I. Allen.
Q What was her maiden name? A Moran.
Q Was she a daughter of Marmaduke G. Moran? A Yes sir.
Q How did your wife become a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Well, I can't exactly explain it. I don't understand it exactly.
Q Was she born in the Choctaw Nation? A I think not--I think her grandmother proved her rights.
Q Was she admitted by an act of the Choctaw Council? A Yes sir.
Q Has your wife since that admission always been recognized by the Choctaw Tribe as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Her rights have never in any manner been disputed? A No sir.
Q When did you marry her? A October 16, 1895.
Q Were you ever married before then? A Yes sir.
Q To whom? A Mary M. Wells.
Q Was she dead when you married your second wife? A Yes sir.
Q Was that the only time you were ever married prior to your marriage to your present wife? A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife ever married prior to her marriage to you? A No sir.
Q You say you married this woman in 1895? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married to her under a Chickasaw Tribal license? A No sir.

Q How were you married? A United States license.
Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage? A Waupanucka.
Q In what Nation? A Chickasaw Nation--I guess that's right on the line. That may be in the Choctaw Nation but I lived in the Chickasaw Nation.
Q You made application to the Dawes Commission to be admitted in 1896? A Yes sir.
Q Were you admitted? A Yes sir.
Q Have you since that admission by the Dawes Commission lived with this woman continuously as man and wife? A Yes sir.
Q Been no separation or divorce? A No sir.
Q Are you and this woman living together in the Chickasaw Nation as actual bona fide residents? A Yes sir.
Q Have you ever been married to this woman by authority of the tribal laws of the Chickasaw Nation? A No sir.
Q Have you ever been married to her in accordance with the tribal laws of the Choctaw Nation? A No sir.
Q The only marriage ceremony performed for you and this woman was under this United States license? A Yes sir.
Q Have you a certified copy of the act of the Choctaw Council admitting your wife to citizenship? A No sir.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary I. Allen and her three minor children, Evi Catherine Allen, Jesse Edger Allen and Randel M. Allen, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, John C. Allen, as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the census card record in this case that on September 6, 1898 Mary I. Allen appeared before the Commission and made personal application for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Evi Catherine Allen, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and that on August 7, 1899 John C. Allen appeared before the Commission and made personal application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of Randel M. Allen, minor child of said John C. Allen and said Mary I. Allen, as a citizen by blood, of the Choctaw Nation. Subsequently on June 8, 1901 there was filed with the Commission written application for the enrollment of Jesse Edger Allen, minor child of said John C. Allen and said Mary I. Allen, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in this case at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory on October 24, 1902.

It appears from the record herein and the census card record in this case that the applicant, Mary I. Allen, is the daughter of Marmaduke Y. Moran, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 15151 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 25, 1904, and Catherine Moran, deceased, a recognized citizen of the Choctaw Nation; that said Marmaduke Y. Moran and Catherine Moran were admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by an act of the General Council of said nation approved November 3, 1879; that the name of the applicant, Mary I. Allen, is not mentioned in said act of admission, although she was living at the time, having been born August 7, 1898; that the applicant, Mary I. Allen, claims rights for herself and the minor applicants herein, Evi Catherine Allen, Jesse Edger Allen and Randel M. Allen, as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of the said admission of the said Marmaduke Y. Moran and the said Catherine Moran to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation in 1879, and of the subsequent recognition of the said Marmaduke Y. Moran, said Catherine Moran and their descendants as citizens of the Choctaw Nation by the tribal authorities of said nation.

It appears from the records of the Commission that on September 7, 1897, in the case entitled "John C. Allen, et al. v. Choctaw Nation." (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 1129), the applicant, John C. Allen, made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321) for the admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation of himself and the minor applicant, Evi Catherine Allen, the said John C. Allen claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with the said Mary I. Allen, and the said Evi Catherine Allen claiming her right thereto as a citizen by blood of said nation; and on December 7, 1897 the said John C. Allen and Evi Catherine Allen were by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken. The applicants, Jesse Edger Allen and Randel M. Allen, having been born subsequent to the date of the original application in 1896, are identified by proper birth certificates filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

It further appears from the record herein that all of the applicants herein who were living on June 28, 1898 were on the date residents in good faith of Indian Territory and that the status of the said John C. Allen as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John C. Allen should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation and that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of James M. Buckholts, et al. (I.T.D. 6490-1903), Mary I. Allen, Evi Catherine Allen, Jesse Edger Allen and Randel M. Allen should be enrolled as citizens by blood of said nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 27, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of a letter of John C. Allen of Ada, Indian Territory, of January 6, 1904, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, which has been referred to this Commission for immediate report and recommendation.

Mr. Allen, in his communication, quotes a letter received from the Commission under date of December 12, 1902, in which he is advised, in reply to his inquiry of December 1, 1902, that a certified copy of the act of the Choctaw Council of October 25, 1879, admitting Elizabeth Moran and her children to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation has been filed with the records in the case of Marmaduke Y. Moran, and that he has been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and his wife, Mrs. I. Allen and his children, Randle M., Eva Catherine and Jesse Edgar Allen, have been listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

Mr. Allen incloses a copy of the notice of the admission of John C. Allen as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and of the admission of Evie Allen as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and he desires to know if there is anything to prevent his enrollment and the approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior, and states that other citizens are threatening to file on lands which he is holding for himself and family, and if they do this will necessitate a contest and entail a great expense which he is unable to bear.

Reporting in this matter I have the honor to advise that it appears from our records that John C. Allen is listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and his wife Mary I. Allen, and his three children, Evi Catherine, Jesse Edgar and Randle M. Allen, have been listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears that Mary I. Allen is about twenty three years of age and is the daughter of Marmaduke Y. Moran and Catherine Moran, who were admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by an act of the Choctaw National Council of October 25, 1879, approved by the Principal Chief of said Nation November 3, 1879. The said Mary I. Allen is not named in the act of the Choctaw Council above referred to, she having been born subsequent to the passage of such act.

It also appears that under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896, John C. Allen was an applicant to this Commission for admission as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and for the admission of his daughter, Evie Allen as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which application was granted by the Commission and no appeal taken from its decision to the United States Courts in Indian Territory within the time prescribed by the act of Congress of June 10, 1896, above referred to.

I have further to report that the parents of Mary I. Allen having been admitted by an act of the Choctaw Council, these persons come within the class of cases embraced in the general protest of Messrs. Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, of September 17, 1903, in which they protested against the enrollment by the Commission or the Department and the making of allotment to any persons admitted to citizenship by acts of the Choctaw Council or the Chickasaw Legislature or by the United States Indian Agent on appeal from the decision of the Choctaw Council, until the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, created under the provisions of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, had passed upon similar and analogous cases pending before it.

Under date of November 18, 1903 (I.T.D.7131, 7118-1903), the Department advised the Commission that it had not acceded to the request of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of September 17, 1903, in so far as it referred to persons admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations by acts of the legislative authorities of said nations and by the United States Indian Agent on appeal from the acts of the Choctaw Council, but before action could be taken under said Departmental direction, the Commission was in receipt of the following telegram from the Department under date of December 10, 1903:

"Suspend action on letter November eighteen I.T.D. seven thousand one thirty one, etc., relative to persons admitted to citizenship Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations by nation's authorities. Letter follows. (Signed) Thos. Ryan, Actg. Sec'y."

Since the receipt of the above quoted telegram, the Commission has received no further instructions in this matter, and the case of John C. Allen, his wife and his minor children has not therefore been taken up for final consideration and determination.

Respectfully,

(SIGNED)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William McDaniel as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that William McDaniel, on April 12, 1887, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Lucetta McDaniel (nee McClure), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 86 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in this case and the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in a case entitled "Wm. McDaniel vs. the Choctaw Nation", 1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, Case No. 82, application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, by reason of his marriage to the said Lucetta McDaniel (nee McClure); that on December 1, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission, and that no appeal was taken from said decision.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that William McDaniel should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 7, asking the status of the enrollment of Eastman Frye or Fryer, husband of Mary Payton, Choctaw roll by blood Number 8261.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from the records of this office that Mary Payton, Choctaw roll by blood Number 8261, was the wife of Elijah Fry, who was an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. It appears from the records, however, that Elijah Fry is now deceased, and for the purpose of making his death a matter of record there is inclosed herewith blank form for proof of death which you are requested to have executed showing the correct date of the death of Elijah Fry.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

I am unable to find out anything certain about his death. Have tried every way that I know how. His wife would like to know this with a view of getting his estate.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elijah Fry as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

-----ooOoo-----

It appears from the census card record in this case that on September 6, 1898, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Elijah Fry as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

This office has through its field parties operating in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and its land offices, and by interviews at this office of prominent residents of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of extensive acquaintance, made every effort to ascertain the whereabouts of said applicant, but no information has been obtained.

It is considered that the applicant is either dead or residing without the limits of the Indian Territory.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that the application for the enrollment of Elijah Fry as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation should be dismissed, and it is so ordered.

Madam:-

The Commission has been advised of the death of your husband, Elijah Fry.

For the purpose of making his death a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank proof of death which you are kindly requested to have filled out and return with as little delay as possible. You will notice that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and an acquaintance. Both of these blanks should be properly filled, all names written in full, and the affidavits sworn to before a Notary Public. Should the relative or acquaintance making affidavit be unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, it will be necessary that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto.

The Notary Public before whom the affidavits of the relative and the acquaintance are acknowledged must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

This information must be furnished the Commission at the earliest practicable date in order to determine the rights of yourself and family as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Clay N. Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N---

It is shown by the census card record in this case that application was made to the Commission at its session held at Stonewall, Indian Territory, commencing September 1, and ending September 8, 1898, for the enrollment of Clay N. Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Ada, Indian Territory, on November 12, 1902.

It further appears from the record in this case that the applicant herein is a white man, having no Indian blood, and that he claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by reason of his marriage in 1895 under a United States license to Pearl Jones (nee Roff), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It does not appear from the evidence submitted in this case or the records in the possession of the Commission that the applicant herein has ever been recognized or enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen of said Nation, or that he has ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the legally constituted authorities of said Nation, nor does it appear that he has ever been admitted to citizenship in said Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court in Indian Territory in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321) nor does it appear that the applicant herein was ever married to his Choctaw wife in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation, in which nation both parties resided at the time of their said marriage.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Clay N. Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be denied in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

July 30, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for enrollment of Clay H. Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, including your decision of that date, denying the application.

It appears from the record that the applicant is a white man, and that he claims the rights to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, by reason of his marriage in 1895, under a United States license, to Pearl Roff, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. It does not appear that the applicant herein has ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the tribal authorities thereof, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or the United States Court in the Indian Territory. Neither does it appear that the applicant herein was married to his Choctaw wife in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

Reporting October 10, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department affirms your decision.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:-

There is transmitted herewith, for your consideration, the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the matter of the application for enrollment of Clay H. Jones, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from the record in this case that the applicant herein is a white man having no Indian blood, and that he claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by reason of his marriage in 1895 under a United States license to Pearl Jones, nee Roff, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. It appears also that this applicant is not a recognized or enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation, nor does it appear that the applicant herein was ever married to his Choctaw wife in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, in which Nation both parties resided at the time of their said marriage .

These being the facts it is the opinion of this office that the decision of the commission rejecting Clay M. Jones, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation is correct, and I concur in that finding and recommend its approval.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT in the Indian Territory, Central District, at a term thereof begun and held at South McAlester, , in the Indian Territory, on the 26th. day of August, A. D. 1897 ; Present, the Honorable Wm. H. H. Clayton, Judge of said Court.

The following order was made and entered of record, to-wit:

Abraham Nail et al,
vs 84. JUdgment.
Choctaw Nation.

On this 26th. day of August, A. D. 1897, the same being one of the days of the regular April, 1897, term of this court, this cause came on for trial, and the plaintiffs and defendant appeared by their aptorneys and announced ready for trial, and this cause is by agreement submitted to the court for decision and the court having heard the evidence on the part of both plaintiffs and defendant, and being well and fully advised in the premises, doth find, that Abraham H. Nail, his wife Matilda J. Nail, his son John Nail, His son James P. Nail, his son Aaron L. Nail, and Lizzie Nail are citizensof the Choctaw Nation; that the said Lizzie Nail and Matilda J. Nail are citizens of said Choctaw Nation by intermarriage, and that Abraham H. Nail, John Nail, James P. Nail, and Aaron Nail are citizens by blood and that all of said parties reside in the Indian Territory; that William Nail and his wife Letha Nail reside in the state of Texas and are not entitled to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation.

It is therefore by the court, considered, adjudged and decreed that the said Abraham H. Nail, Matilda J. Nail, John Nail, James P. Nail, Aaron Nail and Lizzie Nail, be and hereby are admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation with all the rights, privileges and benefits of such citizens as aforesaid, and that the said William Nail and Letha Nail be excluded and barred from such citizenship.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that each party hereto pay such costs as by such party have been laid out and expended in this case, and it is further ordered that a certified copy of this judgment be, by the clerk of this court, transmitted to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and that the parties for whom judgment is rendered herein be placed upon the rolls prepared or to be prepared by said Commission, and that the parties against whom judgment is herein given be excluded from said rolls.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR;
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Willie McClung as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It is shown by the census card record in this case that on September 7, 1898 the applicant, Willie McClung, (nee Howard) appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Chickasha, Indian Territory, on October 16, 1902.

It appears from the evidence herein and the records in possession of the Commission that the applicant herein, a white woman, was on November 6, 1893, married in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas to Wm. Oscar McClung, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 103 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902.

It further appears that at the time of said marriage the applicant herein was a resident of the State of Texas and the said Wm. Oscar McClung was a resident of the Chickasaw Nation; that immediately after said marriage the applicant removed with her said husband to the Chickasaw Nation where they lived together continuously as husband and wife until 1900 when the said Wm. Oscar McClung was sent to the penitentiary; and that the applicant had continued to reside in the Chickasaw Nation and had remained the wife of the said Wm. Oscar McClung up to and including September 25, 1902.

It appears from an examination of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that the applicant, Willie McClung, is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 14884, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones, (I.T.D. 6818-1904), Willie McClung should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Daniel H. Carr as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It is shown by the census card record in this case that application was made to the Commission at its session held at Stonewall, Indian Territory, commencing September 1 and ending September 8, 1898, for the enrollment of Daniel H. Carr as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in this case and the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in a case entitled "L. M. McClung, et al. vs. Choctaw Nation", 1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, Case No. 1259, application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, by reason of his marriage to Lillie McClung Carr, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 107 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that on December 8, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission; that no appeal was taken from said decision, and that said parties have lived together continuously as husband and wife in Indian Territory from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Daniel H. Carr should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the alleged application for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Appearances:
For the applicant, John Taylor, her husband, and Guy P. Cobb, Attorney, of Ardmore, Indian Territory.
No appearance on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

No proof of service of notice upon the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of the submission of testimony is filed by the applicant's attorney.

Cora Taylor being first duly sworn testified as follows:
Examination by the Commissioner:

Q What is your name? A Cora Taylor.
Q How old are you? A I will be twenty-one the 27th of July.
Q Where do you live? A Roff, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q You claim that you are entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw husband? A John Taylor.
Q Is he an enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.
The applicant's husband is identified, John Taylor, Choctaw roll, card No. 59; final roll of citizensby blood of the Choctaw Nation, 112.
Q When did you marry John Taylor.
A I was married in 1902.
Q What month and day? A In February.
Q What day. A The 19th.
Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to John Taylor?
A No sir.
Q Was she ever married before her marriage to you? A No sir.
Q Where were you living when you were married? A Roff.
Q How long had you been living there? A I had been there over a year before I was married.
Q How long had John Taylor been living there? A I don't know; been there all his life pretty near.
Q Did you personally ever make application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to December 24, 1902? for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation?
A Well, I thought--
Q I don't care about what you thought; I want to know what you did. I want to know if you personally ever appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for your enrollment prior to December 24, 1902?

A (No answer)
Q Do you know whether you did or not? A We made application.
Q Did you yourself ever make application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to December 24, 1902, personally?
A No, I didn't.
Q Did you ever submit any petition prior to December 24, 1902?
A No sir.
Q Did you ever write any letter to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes with reference to your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? Prior to December 24, 1902? A No sir.
Q Did you ever take any action of any character with reference to securing your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation prior to that date? A No sir.
Q You say you are a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Brandon.
Q His full name? A I don't know; my father died when I was little.
Q What is your mother's name? A Brandon.
Q What is her full name? A I don't know that either. She died when I was eleven months old.

Examination by Mr. Cobb.
Q Mrs. Taylor, do you know what the Commission to the Five Tribes means? A No, I don't.
Q Did you ever go before the Dawes Commission and try to be enrolled? A No sir.
Q Did you ever present yourself at Ada to the Dawes Commission?
A Yes sir.
Q When? A In 1902.
Q What month, do you remember? A It was in October I think if I am not mistaken.
Q You are perfectly certain that it was in October, 1902?
A Yes sir.
Q Who was with you at that time? A My husband, John Taylor.

By the Commissioner:
Q What was done at that time? A Why, we paid a lawyer to file application for me, and he said he filed it.
Q Well, what have you done? A I havn't done anything; we just was there and saw it done.
Q Where? A Ada.
Q What place in Ada? A What place was I?
Q Yes. A At the Commission office.
Q How do you know it was? A They said it was.
Q Who said so? A The Commission said so.
Q Well, what was done while you were there? A I don't know; I never paid much attention to it.
Q You were there yourself and say that you did certain things. What did you do? A I never done nothing myself.
Q Didn't do anything? A No, my husband did.
Q I am asking about you? Did you go to Ada yourself? A Yes, I went right with him.
Q What did you do when you got there? A I don't know.

Q What did you when you got to Ada? A I asked him a question-- I don't know.
Q You said that you went to Ada. I want to know what you did when you went there.

By Mr. Cobb. I make a suggestion subject to your concession. To the witness: Tell just what you did when you went before the Commission.

By the Commissioner:
Q I want to know what you did when you went to Atoka. You have not said that you went before the Commission yet. A I went before the Commission.
Q Tell me everything that you did while you were at Ada? How long were you there? A We was there all day.
Q Now, where did you go while you were there? A I don't know.
Q You seem to be very definite about the time you went to Ada; you seem to know that reasonably well. Tell me what you did while you were there in the town? (No answer.
Q You say you were there all day. Who did you talk with, and what did you do there that day? A I don't know.

By Mr. Cobb:
Q If the Commissioner does not object I would like to ask the applicant one or two questions in a mild tone of voice, and let her answer.
Q Who did you go to Atoka with? A My husband.
Q Well, after you got there what did you do? Just state exactly what you did. A Why, I went up to the Commission and staid there part of the day, and that's all we did, just--
Q Where was the Commission that day? A Ada.
Q In what part of town? A I don't know what building it was in.
Q And when you went before the Commission what happened? What questions did they ask you? A Why, they asked me was I intermarried citizen and I told them yes, and they asked me how long I had been and I told them. Asked me who married me, I told them.

Witness excused.

John Taylor being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commissioner:
Q What is your name? A John Taylor.
Q How old are you? A I will be 31 the 18th of January.
Q Where do you live? A Roff.
Q Are you a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And the husband of this woman, Cora Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to her? A Married to her in 1902, February, 19th day.
Q Have you any personal knowledge of any application which was made for her enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation prior to December 24, 1902? A Yes sir.
Q When was it? A I hired a lawyer to file application for her before the Commission at Ada; when the Commission was at Ada.
Q Who was the lawyer. A Talbert.
Q What was his full name? A I don't know his given name. He signed his name S. Carr; I don't know what his full name is.
Q When were you there? What day? A I don't know just the day; sometime in October; I don't remember just the day.

Cora Taylor.

Q You say you went to a lawyer and had his prepare some papers for you? A Yes sir.
Q Was that the only thing you know of being done? A I went to the Commission and asked a man what about the enrollment of my wife, and he said we cant do anything for you now; and I went to this lawyer and he told me--he said that they filed applications any day and said, why don't you make application for your wife; I said that was what I come for, and he said, I will file the application for her, and he made it out. I don't know anything more about it.
Q Did you do anything? A No, I only went before the Commission and see if I was all right on the roll.
Q Did you see anything about having your wife enrolled at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Who did you talk to? A I don't know the man's name at all; I talked to a man that was waiting on the people there; I don't know what his name was.
Q Was your wife there with you at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Was that the only time you ever did anything? A That was the only time.
Q What did you go to this lawyer and get him to file an application for? A I thought everybody else was and I thought I would have a lawyer the same as everyone else did.
Q What day was that? A I don't know just the day, what day it was.
Q What time of the year was it? A It was in October I think.
Q October of 1902? A Yes sir.
Q How was the weather when you went there? A The weather?
Q Yes. A Why, it was cloudy the day we was there.
Q Was it hot or cold? A Why, it wasn't to say cold or hot--medium cool weather.
Q Anybody there with you? A Nobody but my wife.
Q How many people were there when you say you went before the Commission? A Good many people.
Q Do you know any other Choctaws or Chickasaws that were there at the same time, and saw you there? A Yes, I knew some of the.
Q Who? A Family by the name of Johnson and Morris and a young fellow by the name of Filmore. I don't know; the whole neighborhood was there; my neighbors nearly all was there.
Q You say you went to a lawyer and had him fix up an application for your wife and that you then went to the office of the Commission? Was your wife with you when you did that? A No, she was at the hotel when I went own there. I went down there before I had seen my lawyer, and when I went and asked whether I could make application myself they said, we are not taking applications. I went back to the lawyer and he said they was taking applications every day every day ever since they have been here, and he said, I will take the application and file it for you; so I don't know whether he ever filed it or not.
Q You never went back to the Commission's office with it,-with the application?? A He taken it, yes.
Q Did you go too? A No sir.
Q Was your wife with you at either of the times that you went to the office where they were taking applications? A She wasn't with me when I went. I went before the application was made.
Q How long were you in Ada? A I don't know just what time the train was due there; went up in the morning train and back in the evening sometime.
Q Was your wife with you all day? A No, not all day.

5-Cora Taylor.

Q Where was she? A She was most of the time at the hotel or at a cousin's of mine
Q Did she at any time during that day ever personally go to this office where you say they were hearing these applications? A I think her and Tolbert went down together.
Q Do you know whether she did? A I don't know whether she did, positively, no.
Q And the application you say you made you went to this lawyer Tolbert and you never went back with the application?
A No sir.
Q Who told you that they were not hearing any applications?
A I don't know; man working with the Commission.
Q How do you know he was working with the Commission ? A I reckon he was; assiting with the books and telling the people what they had to do in order to the dead; getting a list of the dead; doing that for them; I supposed he was working there.

Examination by Mr. Cobb.

Q What reason had you to think that yourwife made application on that day, personally? A I don't know that she did; I suppose she did.
Q Why did you suppose? A When I saw this lawyer, he asked me where s e was, and I told him where she was.
Did she leave you and go with the lawyer? A No, I didn't go there with them at all.
Q At any time during that day did she state that she had made application? A I don't know whether she did or not; I don't remember.

Cora Taylor being recalled testified as follows:
Examination by the Commissioner:
Q Who were you with when you ent to this office where they were taking applications? A I don't know who he was; I can't think of his name.
Q Who were you with when you with when you went to this office where you say they were taking applications? A I was with a lawyer and then I was with the Morris folks.
Q What time of day was that? A That was in the morning.
Q Tell us exactly what occurred when you went there with this man. A I can't tell you to save my life.
Q You seem to be very definite about some of your statements about the day you went to Ada, and that you made application. I want to know the circumstances. If you went with this lawyer where they were making these applications what did you do?
A I don't know.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the alleged application for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from the record herein that on September 13, 1905, Cora Taylor appeared before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and presented testimony relative to an application alleged to have been made for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641).

Said applicant first testified that she had never made application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Subsequently, however, she stated that in October, 1902, she was at Ada, Indian Territory, while said Commission was holding an appointment there, and employed an attorney to look after her case. Later she testified that she appeared at the office of the Commission while at Ada, Indian Territory, and presented herself for enrollment, and was asked a number of questions relative to her intermarried status.

John Taylor, husband of the applicant, testified that in October, 1902, he appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Ada, Indian Territory, and attempted to apply for his wife but was informed that they could do nothing for him. He first stated that his wife was present when said appearance was made, but subsequently testified that he appeared alone. The witness further testified that after having been informed by said Commission that they could do nothing looking to the enrollment of his wife, he consulted his attorney who agreed to look after the application for the enrollment of his wife, and that since said time no further action has been taken.

Although the applicant and her husband both testified that a number of persons from their neighborhood, as well as their attorney, were present when an attempt was made to apply for the enrollment of the applicant, no effort has been made to secure their testimony in support of said application.

I am of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish that any application was made for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and that no authority exists for the receipt of any application for her enrollment at this time, and I therefore decline to receive the same.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.	MOTION TO RE-OPEN AND RE-CONSIDER

Comes now Cora Taylor by her attorney Guy P.Cobb, and moves that the above entitled case be re-opened and the decision of the Commissioner be re-considered, and that she be enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of Section one, of the act of Congress approved April 26th 1906, upon the following grounds.

First, application for enrollment in this case was made prior to December 1st. 1905, and the records in charge of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes show application to have been so made, and the case under consideration is clearly within the general provisions of the Section above referred to.

Second, that the applicant was married in accordance with the laws and customs of the Choctaw Nation to a recognized citizen of said nation, and that such marriage was equivilent to her name appearing upon the Tribal Rolls, that the application in this case was made prior to December 1st. 1905, and was not allowed solely because not made within the time prescribed by law, and that the case now under consideration comes within the final proviso of the section above referred to.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the alleged application for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the record herein that on September 13, 1905, Cora Taylor appeared before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and presented testimony relative to an application alleged to have been made for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641).

January 31, 1906, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision therein holding that the evidence failed to establish that any application had been made for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and, therefore, declined to receive the same. The Department on November 5, 1906 (I.T.D. 21918-1906), over-ruled the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and authorized that said case be readjudicated in view of Section 1 of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137).

I am, therefore, of the opinion that inasmuch as the record herein shows that application was made for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), the same should now be determined upon its merits, and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that application was duly made for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137).

It further appears from the record herein that on February 19, 1902, the applicant, Cora Taylor, was lawfully married to John Taylor, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears as No. 112 upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior, December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said nation from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that Cora Taylor should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 31, 1906, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision declining to receive the application for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The Department on November 5, 1906 (I.T.D. 21918-1906) remanded the record in the case to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for readjudication under Section one of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat. L., 137).

There is enclosed herewith the record in the case of Cora Taylor, together with the decision of Commissioner Bixby dated December 31, 1906, enrolling Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The record shows that application was made to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Cora Taylor as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by law.

The record further shows that on February 19, 1902, Cora

Taylor was lawfully married to John Taylor, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that at the time of the marriage both persons herein named were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they lived continuously as husband and wife in the Chickasaw Nation from the date of their marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

Therefore, by reason of the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. L. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L., 641), the Office concurs in the decision of Commissioner Bixby enrolling the applicant, Cora Taylor, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Charles A. Cushman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the record herein that Charles A. Cushman, on May 29, 1892, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Artie M. Cushman (nee Taylor), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 113 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Charles A. Cushman should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Atoka, I. T. December 5th, 1900.

In the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation of Alfred Victor.

The said Alfred Victor being duly sworn by Acting Chairman Bixby, was examined by the Commission and testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Alfred Victor.
Q How old are you? A I am fifty-seven years old.
Q You live at Victor, don't you? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your father's name? A John Victor.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he a white man or an Indian? A He was a white man.
Q What was your mother's name? A Ellen Foster.
Q That was her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q She is a Choctaw Indian? A Yes, sir.
Q What county in the Choctaw Nation did she belong to? A She was raised in Wade County in Skullyville. Really, she came from Mississippi.
Q Have you always been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Your place of residence has been in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes, sir; ever since 1899.
Q Did you draw leased district money in 1893? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you draw it in the Chickasaw Nation? A I drew it up there but it was sent from here up there.
Q You drew it as a Choctaw did you? A Yes, sir; one hundred and three dollars.
Q Have you ever been married? A Yes, sir.
Q How many times? A Three times.
Q Were any of your wives ever Chickasaw citizens? A Yes, sir. Lucy Moncrete was a Chickasaw.
Q Between what yearswas she your wife? A Now, before we go any further--I didn't answer you correct, but I didn't do it intentionally. Now, Jones, I married her first, and then afterwards married Lucy Moncrete.
Q When did you marry Lucy Moncrete? A In Cole County.
Q When? A It was in 1872 or '3, as well as I can recollect.
Q How long did you live with her? A Until she died.
Q When was that? A She died four years ago, it will be this coming February.
Q You have not married since then? A Yes, sir.
Q The woman you have married since then is a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, what we want to get at is the enrollment of your Chickasaw wife. Were you ever enrolled by the Chickasaw tribal authorities as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A No, sir; I think not. My wife has been enrolled--my wife and family has been enrolled by the Chickasaw authorities, but myself never was enrolled by the Chickasaw authorities.

BY THE COMMISSION: On the 1897 roll of the Chickasaw Nation in the list of intermarried citizens of the Chickasaw Nation, Pontotoc County, is the name of Alfred Victor, as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Did you ever know any other Alfred Victor that lived in Pontotoc County? A No, sir.
Q You lived there, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you living there in 1897? A Yes, sir.

Q You are sure there was no other person by the name of Alfred Victor living there at that time? A No, sir; I am the only one, I reckon, that lived there. I don't remember of being put on any of the Chickasaw rolls as an intermarried, I don't believe, that I know of. I have been enrolled there as a Choctaw.

Q Now, when the Chickasaw atthorities were preparing their census roll in 1897, do you know whether you were enrolled then or not? A Tom Thompson made the roll. I disremember what year that was, but I think it was about eleven years ago, ten or eleven years ago.

Q The roll we are talking about is only about four years ago. Do you remember when they made these rolls for the Dawes Commission four years ago? A Yes, sir.

Q Was your wife living then? A Yes, sir; she was living when the Dawes Commissi on was first come out, but when I enrolled there at Stonewall she was dead.

Q When you were enrolled at Stonewall did you enroll as a Choctaw or a Chickasaw? A A Choctaw. I have not been enrolled as an intermarried Chickasaw, I don't think, unless it is that roll made when Tom Thompson made the census roll.

Q The census roll would only have been made about four years ago. A. It was before four years ago--I don,t remember now. They went up and enrolled the Choctaws in the Chickasaw Nation.

Witness excused.

---o---

TANDY C. WALKER, being sworn by Acting Chairman Bixby, was examined and testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Tandy C. Walker.

Q What is your age? A I am going on sixty one years old.

Q Are you a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know Alfred Victor? A Yes, sir.

Q Who resides in Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know of any roll ever having been made by the Chickasaw authorities about ten or eleven years ago? A No, sir.

Q There was a payroll made in 1893 and a census roll made in 1897, is that correct? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who made the census roll of Pontotoc County in 1896? A I think Bob Walker was one of the enumerators--yes, he was--and I don't know the others, but maybe George Perry, but I ain't sure. I ain't sure about that, but we used Bob Walker in a case he enrolled.

Q Do you know if Mr. Victor was ever enrolled by the Chickasaw authorities as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A No, sir; I do not.

Q Do you know of any other Alfred Victor of Pontotoc County besides the applicant? A No, sir; I do not.

Q How long has he lived in Pontotoc County? A About ten years--let's see, it was in 1879, about November.

Q He has lived therecontinuously since then? A No, he has moved about some.

Q Was he living there in 1896 when the census roll was made? A Yes, sir; he was living at Blue.

Q The 1897 census roll of the Chickasaw Nation shows the name of Alfred Victor as an intermarried citizen resideing in Pontotoc County. Are you reasonably sure that was the applicant? A I guess that was the one. There isn't any other one that I know of, and he married a Chickasaw, but he was always a Choctaw.

(NOTE: The Alfred Victor who appears upon the intermarried roll of Pontotoc County of the Chickasaw Nation of the year 1897, is identified by the Commission as the same Alfred Victor enrolled by the Commission on Choctaw Roll Card No. 61, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.)

Wm. S. Wellshear, being duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the proceedings in this application at the time and place above mentioned, and that the foregoing is a correct, true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Alfred Vieta, a Chickasaw Indian by blood, residing in the Chickasaw Nation, at Franks begs leave respectfully to submit to your Hon Body as follows;

Inasmuch as it is claimed by Lizzie Warren my divorced wife that she and I were married in 1874, I state that she is incorrect in this date, and that the true date of our marriage was 1869, and we were divorced long before 1874 the date given by her of our marriage. I was married to my ~~present~~ second wife who was Miss Lucy Mancuso a Chickasaw woman in 1872, I hereto attach marked Exhibit A" as a part hereof the Certificate of my marriage with my ~~present~~ second wife signed by James L Chisholm County and Probate Judge of Tobucksy County Chickasaw Nation,

I further show that my divorce from Lizzie Watson was obtained in the District Court at Boiling Springs Chickasaw nation, Grady County, that the records were afterwards removed to Wilburton in Latimer County, and that some time about the year 1892 the Court house and all records were destroyed by fire, and that for this reason it is impossible for me to obtain a copy of the decree proceedings and decree for proof of the above statement I herein attach, marked "Exhibit B" as a part hereof, the affidavit of W. Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment [illegible] Palmer [illegible], Indian [illegible] Wright, born [illegible] November 9, 1900; also [illegible] citizen of the Choctaw Nation, wife of [illegible] Wright, and daughter of Islam and Francis Wright, born November 9, 1901, and the same are returned to you herewith for further information relative to the mother of the children, and for the further reason that the notary public before whom the affidavits of the attending midwife were acknowledged has neglected to affix his official seal thereto.

It is stated in the affidavit of the mother that she is twenty-one years of age, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and the lawful wife of Islam Wright.

If this is correct you are requested to state her full maiden name, the time and place application was made for her enrollment, the names of other members of her family for whom application was made at the same time, and any other information which you may have that will enable the Commission to identify Francis Wright as being duly listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

If she is a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation who has been married to you since the time she was listed for enrollment as such, legal evidence of her marriage to you should be furnished the Commission as authority for changing her name upon our records from her maiden name to her present marital name.

Upon receipt of the information requested herein together with legal evidence of marriage and return of the applications for the enrollment of your children, with the seal of the notary public affixed to the affidavits of the midwife, the matter will receive further consideration.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George England as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-D E C I S I O N-

It appears from the record herein that George England, on August 31, 1899, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Anna England (nee Spain), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No.127 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that George England should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:-

Since notifying you on August 18, 1900, of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The question raised is to your right to enrollment under your second marriage.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 6th instant, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, has been by him referred to this office for consideration and appropriate action. You therein state that in February, 1905, you were married to Erin Murray, a Choctaw Indian, and request that your name be placed upon the roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It does not appear from the records in the possession of this office that any application has ever been made for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time prescribed by law.

You are further advised that no person is entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation who was married subsequent to September 25, 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Annie M. McCaughey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the record herein that Annie M. McCaughey (nee Lee) claims rights as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of her marriage, on February 4, 1891, with Emmet McCaughey, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 134 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage the applicant was a resident of the Territory of Oklahoma, and the said Emmet McCaughey was a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

An examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission shows that the applicant's name appears upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, intermarried roll, number 14888.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6818-1904) Annie M. McCaughey should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

CHOCTAW

IN THE CHOCTAW AND CHICKASAW CITIZENSHIP COURT SITTING AT SOUTH McALESTER, IN THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF THE INDIAN TERRITORY IN THE CHOCTAW NATION.

Lula [illegible].Trahern, alias Lula [illegible].Trahern,----------Appellant, vs #40.

The Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations,----------Appellees.

The Treaty of 1866 with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations provided, in section 38 thereof, that,

"every white person who having married a Choctaw or Chickasaw resides in the said Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation &c. &c.----------is to be deemed a member of said Nation----------."

As has heretofore been declared in cases decided in this court to entitle a white person to be deemed a member of said nation or nations, the white person must have married a Choctaw or Chickasaw and must reside in the Choctaw or Chickasaw nation after said marriage. That is to say, a valid marriage to a Choctaw or Chickasaw must be followed by a residence in one of said Nations as the case may be.

A male Choctaw under the laws and regulations of the said Nation can contract a marriage which is legal outside of ~~the~~ said Nation and under the laws of any other State, and then bringing his white wife to reside in ~~the~~ said nation of which he is a member, and she afterwards there resides as his wife, she is to be deemed a member of said Nation. Two things must concur. The valid marriage must take place by a male member of the Tribe or nation to a white woman and she must live and reside with her husband in said nation in which he resides.

The question involved in this case is whether a Choctaw man by blood, married in Mississippi, before he has been enrolled as a Choctaw by blood, in the Choctaw Nation, India Territory, can by removing and living in the Choctaw Nation with his wife so married, convert a her so to speak,without remarrying her,into a member of said tribe That is to say does the marriage,valid in all respects as such,and followed by residence,entitle the white woman to membership in the Nation of her husband from the time of her husband's enrolment as a Choctaw by blood(under the existing laws and treaties) by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and the approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior? I think that these things are sufficiant under section 38 of the Treaty of 1866.

There is of course a vast difference between the status of a white man marrying a Choctaw or Chickasaw woman and a white woman marrying a Choctaw or Chickasaw man. The white man must marry in the Nation he wishes to become a member of by intermarriage according to its laws and regulations,and reside therein thereafter and remain with his wife. A white woman can be validly married to a Choctaw man in any jurisdiction outside of the Nation and by then residing in said Nation in the marital state with her Choctaw husband be deemed from such marriage and residence a member of that Nation. I cannot see how a marriage valid before her husband a Choctaw by blood became identified and entitled to enrolment in the respective Nation and valid thereafter,and followed by her residence continuously after his recognition and identification does not entitle the white wife to be deemed a member of the Nation of which her husband is a member. This conclusion it seems to me is according to the letter and spirit of section 38 of the Treaty of 1866 and in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Choctaw Nation.

Such a state of facts and conditions brings about what the Treaty intended,towit, a valid marriage and insuring the legitimacy of the off-spring,if any, of such marriage,and residence in the Nation as a member thereof,which are the two essential things the said Treaty seeks to effectuate.

I think that the appellant here Lula B.Trahern sometimes called Lula E.Trahern should be declared entitled to intermarried citizenship in the Choctaw Nation,and all rights accruing therefrom and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Abbie Williams for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the Census Card record in this case that, on September 12, 1898, the applicant herein, Abbie Williams, appeared before the Commission and made application for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, September 8, 1904.

It further appears from the record herein that on May 18, 1894 the applicant, Abbie Williams (nee Branum), was married, under the laws of the Territory of Oklahoma, to Newt Williams, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 143 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both parties herein were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage, on May 18, 1894, up to and including September 25, 1902, as bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that, on November 5, 1900, the applicant herein, Abbie Williams, under the name of Sarah A. Williams, made application before the Commission for her identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, but, on motion of her attorney, she was permitted to withdraw said application.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission, the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 15803, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6813-1904), Abbie Williams should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William A. Little as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that William A. Little, on April 28, 1897, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Lucy Wadkins, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No.145 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that William A. Little should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that the Choctaw Nation through its attorneys, Messrs McCennon, Mansfield, Murray, & Cornish, has filed with this Commission a notice of protest to your enrollment as citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December, 3rd, 1900 hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Choctaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in this case, and this hearing will be final.

Very truly,

Acting Chairman.

7-D-39.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 7, 1900

William A. Little,

Arthur, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 3rd instant in which you state that you have received from the Commission a letter of the 18th of August, notifying you that a protest has been filed by the Choctaw Nation as to your enrollment as a citizen of that Nation and you now desire to be informed on what grounds such protest has been made and what testimony or evidence will be required of you at the time the Commission has set for the hearing of these cases.

You are informed that the Commission cannot at this time go into the merits of the cases in which the Choctaw Nation has filed protest as we have only been furnished with a general protest by the attorneys for the Choctaw Nation, giving the names of a number of parties whose rights have not been fully determined by the Commission and against whose enrollment the Choctaw Nation filed an objection. In justice to these parties whose enrollment has thus been protested the Commission has notified them of the filing of such notice and has also required of the attorneys for the Choctaw Nation, that they serve, prior to October 31st, 1900, a notice on such applicants whose rights have thus been protested, stating therein the grounds upon which such objection is made to their enrollment.

W. A. L.

,At the session of the Commission in Ateka, Indian Territory, commencing December 3rd, 1900, the Commission will hear any evidence or testimony that either the applicants or the Nation may desire to present in support of their claims and after such session the Commission as soon as possible will render a decision in these cases.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

In reply please

William A. Batt[illegible],

Arthur, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Since notifying you on August 18, 1900, of the protest filed by the Choctaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The question raised is to your right to enrollment under your second marriage.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Choctaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Laura Jones,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

On the 19th day of August, 1901, you appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of yourself and your six minor children, John, Zeke, Rance, Malissa, Minnie and Sam Jones.

It appears from the evidence offered in support of said application that the applicants above named have never been enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation, and that their names do not appear upon the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation, now in possession of this Commission; that they have not been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the legally constituted authorities of the Choctaw Nation, or by the United States Court in Indian Territory on appeal, in accordance with the provisions of the act of June 10, 1896, (29 Stats.,321).

The act of Congress of May 31, 1900, (31 Stats.,221) provides:

"That said Commission shall continue to exercise all authority heretofore conferred on it by law. But it shall not receive, consider, or make any record of any application of any person for enrollment as a member of any tribe of Indians in Indian Territory who has not been a recognized citizen thereof, and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, and its refusal of such applications shall be final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior."

The Commission has, therefore, on this date, decided that yourself and your six minor children above named are not citizens of the Choctaw Nation, and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, and that pursuant to the provision of law above quoted, the Commission is without authority to receive, consider, or make any record of the application for enrollment of yourself and said children as citizens of said nation.

You are also informedthat the Commission has on this date forwarded a memorandum of its action to the Secretary of the Interior for consideration. A copy of the testimony taken in support of your application is herewith inclosed.

The Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

January 13, 1902, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs transmitted your memorandum in the matter of the application for enrollment of Laura, John, Zeke, Rance, Malissa, Minnie and Sam Jones as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, and recommended that your decision in the case be approved.

December 18, 1901, you refused the application under the act of May 31, 1900.

The Department affirms your decision in this case, and you will so inform the applicants. Copy of the Commissioner's letter is inclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, January 13, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to forward herewith for the consideration of the Department memorandum of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of Laura Jones for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, John, Zeke, Rauce, Malissa, Minnie and Sam Jones, as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

From the testimony it appears that not one of the applicants herein have ever been enrolled, admitted or recognized as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The statement of the Commission is to the effect that under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved May 31, 1900, (Stats., 221) it had no authority to enroll said applicants.

The office respectfully recommends that the decision of the Commission be approved.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

W. A. JONES,
Commissioner.

Dear Madam:

On August 19, 1901, you made application to this Commission for the enrollment of yourself and your minor children, John, Zeke, Rance, Malissa, Minnie, and Sam Jones, as citizens of the Choctaw Nation. On December 18, 1901, after a consideration of said application, the Commission refused to enroll you as a citizen, also your minor children, John, Zeke, Rance, Malissa, Minnie, and Sam Jones, as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, and a copy of such decision was mailed to your post office address December 18, 1901.

On December 30, 1901, there was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior the memorandum made at the time of your application, and the action of the Commission thereon, and on January 16, 1902, the Secretary of the Interior concurred in the decision of the Commission refusing your application for the enrollment of yourself and your minor children as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

The action of the Commission and of the Secretary of the Interior as to such application is final.

Yours truly,

SIGNED. Tams Bixby.

Paula Valley, I. T., October 24, 1902.

In the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation of Minar Leewright.

Minar Leewright being duly sworn testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A Minar Leewright.
Q How old are you? A 56 years old.
Q What is your post office address? A McGee.
Q How long have you resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A Been here since in 1887, I was marrie' the spring of '87, I had only been in the Chickasaw Nation about a year.
Q Please answer the question direct; how long have you resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A I have been here,— but I will have to count back; I dont know whether I can get it right or not,— between 16 and 17 years.
Q Lived here continuously for that length of time? A Yes sir.
Q Never made your home anywhere else? A No sir.
Q You are a white man? A Yes sir.
Q And a claimant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife? A Fedy Leewright.
Q What was her maiden name? A Hibdon before I married her. Her maiden name was Spain.
Q Is your wife a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have rights have never in any manner been questioned? A No sir.
Q When did you marry her? A About 1886 I think it was, '86 or 7.
Q How long had you been residing in the Chickasaw Nation when you married this woman? A A year.
Q Had she always resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A No, when I married her,— I got acquainted with her she was in the Chickasaw Nation.
Q How long prior to your marriage had she been living in the Chickasaw Nation? A I think she had been here— I wont be positive about this now,— she was living here at her brother's, Dave Spain, just across the river here.
Q How long had she been living here prior to her marriage to you? A Several years, I dont know exactly.
Q Was she ever married prior to her marriage to you? A Yes sir, married a man named Hibdon.
Q Was that the only time? A That was the only time I remember.
Q Was Hibdon dead when you married her? A Yes sir, he was dead three years.
Q Had you been married prior to your marriage to this woman? A No sir.

Minar Leewright------?

Q You say you were married to her in 1886? A '86 or 7.
Q Were you married to her under a Chickasaw tribal license? A Yes sir, by Judge Dickerson.
Q How much did you pay for that license? A Fifty dollars. I returned them to Parson Moore, and he said he take them back and they blowed away in the wind--
Q Where? A Down near Lebanon in the Chickasaw Nation, at the time the papers were all destroyed in a storm.
Q Whom did you get your license from? A Judge Dickerson.
Q Who married you? A Parson Moore, Elder Moore.
Q Have you ever madeany effort to obtain that marriage license? A No sir, I made application here before--
Q That is not what we are talking about,- have you ever made any effort to get that marriage license? A Yes sir.
Q Can't you find it anywhere? A They claim it was blowed away.
Q Who claim that? A The parties I tried to inquire about it.
Q Whom did you inquire of? A Parson Moore.
Q Did you have your marriage license and certificate recorded? A I returned them to him and he took them to have recorded.
Q Were they recorded? A He said they were.
Q Have you ever been to the Clerk's office of he county to see? A I started down there once, and they said it was blowed away, destroyed, and they could not find any papers.
Q Do you know whether it was actually destroyed? A I cant tell you; they told me they were.
Q Do you actually know? A No sir.
Q Have you yourself ever made any effort to find it? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go down there and attempt to procure this marriage license or a copy of it? A No sir, never went there.
Q It would be advisable if you can possibly secure a copy of your marriage license and file with the Commission? A I can get the depositions of people— I will do that--- I will go down there.
Q Since your marriage to this woman in 1886 have you lived with her continuously? A Yes sir.
Q Been no separation, desertion or divorce? A No sir.
Q Are you and this woman now living together in the Chickasaw Nation and are actual bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation at this time? A Yessir.

W. H. Martin being duly sworn on oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he recorded in full the above proceedings at Pauls Valley, I. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Minor Leewright as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that that Minor Leewright, on May 12, 1887, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Fidy Leewright (formerly Hibdon), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 165 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Minor Leewright should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

--:o:--

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Laura Lee McMenamin as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N

It appears from the record herein that Laura Lee McMenamin on September 2, 1896, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to F. P. McMenamin, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 183 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in a case entitled "Laura L. McMinamen and Michael M. McMinamen vs. Choctaw Nation", 1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, Case No. 1327, application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, by reason of her marriage to the said F. P. McMenamin; that on December 8, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission, and that no appeal was taken from said decision.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Laura Lee McMenamin should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Henrietta Riddle as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Henrietta Riddle (nee McCarty), on July 25, 1883, was lawfully married to William Riddle, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 184 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage the said William Riddle was a resident of the Choctaw Nation and the applicant herein was a resident of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Henrietta Riddle should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Emely Gardner, 7-97.

It appears that the first act of the legislature of the Chickasaw Nation relating to marriages between citizens of the United States and the members of the tribe was passed on September 20, 1872. We have no copy of this act.

The next act upon this subject was passed by the Chickasaw legislature on September 25, 1875, which provided that unless marriages shall have been solemnized in accordance with the laws of the Chickasaw Nation, such marriages should not confer any right of citizenship upon the non-citizen.

The applicant in this case is a white woman and was married to James W. Gardner, a Choctaw by blood, and that at the time of their marriage both persons were residents of the Chickasaw Nation.

The Chickasaw legislature passed a remedial statute on October 12, 1876, entitled "An Act to legalize marriages, solemnized by licensed preachers". Section 1 thereof reads as follows:

> "Be it enacted by the legislature of the Chickasaw Nation That every marriage which has been solemnized by any (un) ordained licensed preacher within the limits of the Chickasaw Nation, before the passage of this act, is hereby legalized, and every child born in marriage, the offspring of it, is hereby declared to be legitimate, and shall be entitled to all the rights, priveleges and immunities thereof, just the same as if the marriage ceremony had been performed by any lawful judge of this Nation, or any ordained preacher of the gospel, as contemplated in the 4th section, specified in the preamble of this act."

I therefore think the applicant entitled to enrollment.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 18, 1906, in which you state that you have not made application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen up to this time and you ask for a blank to fill out for that purpose; you state that you married Jane B. Overstreet, Choctaw roll by blood 195.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear from the records of this office that application has been made by you or on your behalf for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and in connection with this matter your attention is invited to the following provision of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906:

> "That after the approval of this Act no person shall be enrolled as a citizen or freedman of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, Creek, or Seminole tribes of Indians in the Indian Territory, except as herein otherwise provided, unless application for enrollment was made prior to December first, nineteen hundred and five, and the records in charge of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes shall be conclusive evidence as to the fact of such application; and no motion to reopen or reconsider any citizenship case, in any of said tribes, shall be entertained unless filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the date of the

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 6, 1906, asking the status of the application for the enrollment of your child Furman C. Brumley; you state that the mother of this child is Jane B. Brumley whose name appears upon the roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation at No. 195.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from the affidavits heretofore forwarded to the birth of your child Furman C. Brumley that said child was born July 11, 1906 and has the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, provides only for the enrollment of children of Choctaw and Chickasaw citizens who were living March 4, 1906, you will see that there is no authority for the enrollment of this child.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

--:o:--

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ben Cobb as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the record herein that Ben Cobb, on November 12, 1896, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Maud O. Cobb, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as Number 197 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Ben Cobb should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

REFER IN REPLY TO THE FOLLOWING

Choctaw D-499.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 20, 1902.

Wirt Randolph,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory.

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 12th day of April, 1902.

On said date you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission in person or by attorney when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting said application which you may think proper or necessary.

You are further notified that the representatives of the Choctaw Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony affecting your right to enrollment, but said representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

THE FACTS.

The record in this case shows that in fact the applicant was married to Minnie Cooper, a Choctaw Indian girl by blod, first by a license procured from the clerk of the United States Court at Pauls Valley, and subsequently the applicant was remarried under a license procured from the County Judge of Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation, the County in which said Minnie Cooper resided. The record furhe shows that prior to his marriage under the license from the United States Court, the applicant was before the county judge of Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation with a petition as required by the Chickasaw marriage laws for the procurement of a license for a non-citizen to marry a citizen, and requested the issuance of such license to marry said Minnie Cooper, and tendered to the judge the sum of Fifty Dollars as fees therefor, that being the sumthe required for such license. The county judge refused to issue the license because he then ignorantly supposed that his authority to do so was revoked by the provisions of the so-called Curtis Bill. The subsequent re-marriage of the applicant was in full compliance with the Chickasaw marriage laws.

THE LAW.

No blame can properly be attached to the applicant by reason of his first marriage under the license from the United States Court. He did all in his power to marry Minnie Cooper according to the Chickasaw Marriage laws, but was balked by the ignorance and stupidity of the county judge. Afterwards when the judge learned more about his powers, the proper license was granted and a marriage was consummated in full accordance with said laws. The only question, then, is, does the intermarriage of a white person with a Choctaw Indian residing in the Chickasaw Nation confer the rights of

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Wirt Randolph as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on September 10, 1899 the applicant, Wirt Randolph, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Minnie Randolph (nee Cooper), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 202 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Wirt Randolph should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 10th instant in the matter of the protest filed by the representatives of the Choctaw Nation to your final enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the ChoctawNation.

You state in your letter that you are able to furnish proof showing that at the time you were married that the Choctaw Nation would not issue marriage licenses, claiming that they had stopped the issue of such licenses to white men marrying Choctaw Indians.

The Commission informed you on September 18th, that the question raised to yourenrollment was under your second marriage but that there was a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision could be rendered and in your case it would not be necessary for you to appear before the Commission at its session at Atoka, beginning December 3rd, next.

This letter is not to be construed as prohibiting you from introducing any additional testimony you may desire in support of your application but merely to inform you that if you do not desire to appear at the session at Atoka, such appearance will not be necessary.

The purpose of the Commission in making the appointment at Atoka for December, was with the idea of hearing all testimony that might be offered in support of claimants or of the Nations in doubtful cases, so that as soon thereafter as practicable the Commission could take up and pass upon these doubtful claimants to citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation.

If you therefore desire to offer additional testimony in support of your application, you will be heard at the session of the Commission in Atoka, beginning December 3rd, 1900 and as soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will undertake to dispose of these doubtful claims and a decision will be rendered in each case, a copy of which will be mailed to the applicant, stating fully therein the reason for any action the Commission may take in any case.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 26, 1900.

Wirt Randolph,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 22nd instant in the matter of the protest to your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw nation and in which you furnish the Commission with certain information as to your marriage.

As the Commission has written you in previous letters, we cannot at this time go into the merits of these doubtful claims in which the Choctaw nation has filed a protest. The appointment of the Commission at Atoka was made for this special purpose so that the Commission could there and then give its full and undivided attention to these cases and fully go into the merits of them, but cannot prior to that time undertake to pass upon the rights of any parties to enrollment in either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

If you desire to present your case to the Commission at its session at Atoka, you will be allowed to do so and also to introduce any additional testimony of witnesses that you may desire to offer.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Charles W. See as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Charles W. See, on March 19, 1899, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Hibernia See (nee Carson), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No.204 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats.,641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25,1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Charles W. See should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) and July 1,,1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jerry Carson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that Jerry Carson in the year 1874 was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Lula Carson (nee McCaughey), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who is identified upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Payment Roll, Chickasaw District, page 10, number 105, enrolled thereon as a citizen by blood of said Nation; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chick - asaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously as husband and wife in said Nation from the date of said marriage until the death of the said Lula Carson on November 6, 1893, since which time the applicant herein had continued to reside in the Chickasaw Nation and had not remarried up to and including September 25, 1902.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, as number 14444, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Jerry Carson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jonas R. Harris as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Jonas R. Harris, on June 28, 1886, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Rosa L. Harris (nee Dunn), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 9038 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on February 4, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Jonas R. Harris should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On October 6, 1902, the Commission transmitted for departmental approval schedule number 1 of the partial roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, numbers 1 to 1001, inclusive, copies of which were returned to the Commission approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902.

Referring to the names of Rosa L. Harris and Alfred M. Harris, which appear thereon opposite numbers 213 and 214, respectively, the Commission has to advise that on July 6, 1903, Rosa L. Harris appeared at the Chickasaw Land Office at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, for the purpose of selecting allotments for herself and her minor child, Alfred M. Harris, and on July 10, 1903, the said Rosa L. Harris appeared at the Choctaw Land Office at Atoka, Indian Territory, for the purpose of selecting in allotment the residue of land due herself and her said son, Alfred M. Harris.

From an examination of the record it develops that these persons are identical with Rosa L. Harris and Alfred M. Harris whose names appear opposite numbers 9038 and 9039, respectively, upon schedule No. 10 of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation forwarded with our letter of January 9, 1903, copies of which were returned to the Commission approved by the Secretary of the Interior February 4, 1903.

As allotments of land have been made to Rosa L. Harris and Alfred M. Harris, whose names appear opposite Nos. 213 and 214, the Commission has to recommend that the enrollment of Rosa L. Harris and Alfred M. Harris, Nos. 9038 and 9039, on the approved roll of Choctaw citizens be cancelled upon the schedules of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Department, and that the Commission be authorized to cancel their enrollment upon the approved schedules of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation in its possession.

There are inclosed herewith copies of census cards, field numbers 106 and 3107, respectively, bearing the names of Rosa L. Harris and Alfred M. Harris.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I.T.

Gentlemen:

On August 29, 1903, you recommended that the enrollment of Rosa L. Harris and Alfred K. Harris, whose names appear opposite numbers 9038 and 9039 on schedule No. 10 of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, be canceled for the reason that their names are enrolled at numbers 213 and 214, respectively, on schedule No. 1 of Choctaws by blood, and that they have received allotments under the last mentioned numbers.

Reporting September 15, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurs in your recommendation. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The enrollment of Rosa L. Harris and Alfred K. Harris at numbers 9038 and 9039, respectively, is hereby cancelled, and the cancellation has been noted upon the schedule. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has been directed to correct the copy of the schedule in his office, in the same particular, and you are requested to correct in like manner the copies returned to you.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15th, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Commission tothe Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 29, 1903, in which it is stated that Rosa L. Harris and Alfred M. Harris, whose names appear opposite numbers 213 and 214 Choctaw Partial Rolls, are identical with Rosa L. Harris and Alfred M. Harris, whose names appear opposite numbers 9038 and 9039, Choctaw Approved Partial Rolls; that allotments have been made to these parties under roll numbers 213 and 214, and the Commission recommends that their names be cancelled on the Choctaw Approved Roll opposite numbers 9038 and 9039.

Inasmuch as it appears that these parties have been enrolled twice, it is recommended that the Commission's request be granted, and the office be authorized to correct its partial roll in this particular.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Mardie Grant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on September 23, 1902, Mardie Grant made original application to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application on October 23, 1902.

It further appears from the record herein that on September 21, 1902, the applicant, Mardie Grant, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Thomas Grant, Jr. a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 215 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the date of said marriage both the persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and have lived together, in said Nation, as husband and wife continuously since said date up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mardie Grant should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 7, 1906, in which you state that you were married to a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation September 19, 1902 and you desire to be advised if steps will be taken to deprive you of the rights you have already received as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that under a recent opinion of the Assistant Attorney General those persons who married citizens of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation prior to September 25, 1902, and for whose enrollment as intermarried citizens application was made prior to that date may be enrolled.

Your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation has heretofore been approved by the Secretary of the Interior and it is not believed that further action will be taken in your case.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John L. Burnett as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, John L. Burnett, in 189[illegible] was lawfully married to Catherine Campbell a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears (as Catherine C. Burnett), as number 216 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in the case entitled "J. L. Burnett vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 884), application was made to this Commission, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by reason of his said marriage to Catherine Campbell; that the said John L. Burnett was on December 4, 1896, admitted by this Commission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, from which decision of the Commission an appeal was taken by said nation to the United States Court for the Southern District of Indian Territory; that on November 1, 1897, said appeal was "dismissed by order of plaintiff."

It further appears from the record herein that the applicant was a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the time of his said admission in 1896, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John L. Burnett should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495),

J. T. Blanton,

Attorney at Law,

Pauls Valley, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 23, relative to the application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation of one J. L. Burnett, who has a certificate from the Secretary of this Commission to the effect that he was admitted as such intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896; that appeal was taken to the United States Court in Indian Territory and that the appeal was dismissed.

You state that you were informed, at the time Mr. Burnett sought to make application to the Commission at Pauls Valley, that this was in the nature of an original application which the Commission had not the authority to entertain at this time, and you ask to advised in regard to the matter so that you may know what action should be taken by your client.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that J. L. Burnett filed his original application to this Commission, under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896, for intermarried citizenship in the Choctaw Nation; that his application was granted by the Commission; that the case was appealed to the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory, and that the appeal was dismissed, November 1, 1897.

It does not appear from our records that J. L. Burton is an applicant to this Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. You are advised that Mr. Burnett will be heard, upon his personal appearance before the Commission at one of its appointments, in an application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 31, 1902.

P. . Hopkins,

Choctaw-Chickasaw Enrollment Party,

Tishomingo, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 25, inclosing a letter under date of June 13, 1898, addressed to C.W. Barnett, Ada, Indian Territory, accompanied by a certificate from the Secretary of the Commission of the admission of J. J. Brett as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, under the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896. You state that on October 23, 1902, Burnett made personal application to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and that, as this was the first application made by him for enrollment and as it was submitted subsequent to September 25, 1902, you declined to receive the same until specifically instructed by the Commission. You now request that the Choctaw-Chickasaw Enrollment Party be specifically advised if original applications for enrollment of persons admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, who had not, prior to September 25, 1902, made personal application to this Commission for enrollment, should now be received. You state that you have advised J. L. Burnett and Mary Renson, about whom a letter was previously written by you to the Commission, that if the Commission decided to receive their applications they would be advised thereof, and could appear at one of the future appointments of the Commission in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

You are advised that it appears from our records that J. L. Burnett applied to the Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896, for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming the right thereto by intermarriage; that the Commission granted his application, and that the case was appealed to the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory. On November 1, 1897, the appeal was dismissed. There is inclosed you herewith a full record of the status of this case as shown by our dockets, together with the letter and certificate inclosed by you, and a copy of letter this day written J. T. Blanton, Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, advising him that the application of J. L. Burnett for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation would be heard, upon his personal appearance at one of the future appointments of the Commission.

You are further advised that you should treat the cases of persons who were admitted by the Commission in 1896 to citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, but who had not, prior to September 25, 1902, made personal application to this Commission for enrollment in said nations, as belonging to the class specified in the agreement of September 25, 1902, as delinquents, and their ap-

John L. Burnett,

Whitebead, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that under direction of the Secretary of the Interior of November 18, 1903, and upon a protest filed with the Commission by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations dated January 23, 1904, no further action will by taken relative to your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation until the Commission is further instructed by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August , 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

On June 23, 1904, (I.T.D. 5090-1904) the Secretary of the Interior referred to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for report and recommendation, a communication of Blanton & Andrews, Attorneys at Law, Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, of June 18, 1904.

Messrs. Blanton & Andrews, in their communication, complain of the delay in the determination of the applications for enrollment of certain clients , J. L. Burnett and Deloriss Whittle, whose cases have been pending for a long period of time, that of J. L. Burnett, they allege, since in 1896.

Reporting in this matter I have the honor to advise that it appears from our records that on November 14, 1902, John L. Burnett made application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It appears that the said John L. Burnett was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission in 1896, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896; that appeal was taken from said decision of the Commission but that the same was dismissed. It does not appear, however, that application was made by the said John L. Burnett, for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation under the decision of the Commission in 1896 admitting him as such intermarried citizen, until November 14, 1902.

On February 6, 1904, there was filed with the Commission by Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, their protest on behalf of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, under date of January 23, 1904, in which they request that action be postponed in this case until final decision of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of Preston Early, et al. versus the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, Numbered on the South McAlester Docket, in which the said court will decide the question of the citizenship rights by intermarriage, if any, of those white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation not in accordance with tribal laws, which question, they allege, is involved in the case of John L. Burnett.

On March 31, 1904, the Secretary of the Interior overruled the protests of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in so far as they refer to persons admitted to citizenship by the Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 10, 1896.

Further reporting in this matter I have the honor to advise that it appears from our records that Delories Whittle, on August 8, 1899, made application to the Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage to John Whittle, a recognized citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

The question involved in this case is that of separation and on February 6, 1904, there was filed with the record in this case the protest of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, under date of January 23, 1904, in which they request that final decision in this case be postponed until final decision by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of B. F. Thompson versus the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, Number 38 on the South McAlester Docket of said court, in which that court will decide the question of the validity of that portion of the intermarriage laws of the Choctaw Nation providing for the forfeiture of citizenship of white persons who separate from their Indian spouses.

On March 26, 1904, the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court certified to the Commission its decree in the case of B. F. Thompson versus the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, and on March 28, 1904, the Secretary of the Interior overruled the protests of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in those cases where the analogous cases named in said protests had been decided by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

The applicants in the two cases above referred to, J. L. Burnett and Delaries Whittle, were notified of the filing of the protests of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in their respective cases and since the overruling thereof by the Secretary of the Interior, their attorneys of record, Blanton & Andrews, Paulo Valley, Indian Territory, have been advised that the Commission would proceed with the adjudication of these cases as early as practicable.

I have further to report that since the overruling of the pleas of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations the Commission has been taking up, in their numerical order, the cases of applicants for enrollment as intermarried citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and is disposing of the same as rapidly as practicable and it is believed that the cases above referred to will be reached within the very near future.

The communication of Blanton & Andrews of Paulo Valley, Ind. T., is herewith returned.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

of Indian Affairs.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Wiley P. Casey as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Julia Ann W. Casey, and his minor child, Pushamataha Casey, as citizens by blood, of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the census card record in this case that on September 13, 1898, the principal applicant, Wiley P. Casey, appeared before the Commission and made personal application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Julia Ann W. Casey, as a citizen by blood, of the Choctaw Nation. Subsequently, on October 25, 1900, there was filed with the Commission a written application for the enrollment of Pushamataha Casey, born October 11, 1900, to the applicants, Wiley P. Casey and Julia Ann W. Casey. Further proceedings were had in this case at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on November 3, 1902, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 16, 1904.

It appears from the records of the Commission that the applicant, Julia Ann W. Casey, is identified upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Payment Roll, Chickasaw District, page 67, number 619, and also upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 14180, enrolled on said rolls as a citizen by blood of said Nation. Said applicant is further identified upon the 1890 authenticated tribal roll of the Creek Nation and also upon the 1895 pay roll of the Creek Nation. The applicant, Pushamataha Casey, having been born subsequent to the preparation of said rolls, is identified by proper proof of birth, filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on December 5, 1896, in the case entitled "Mary Florence Gatlin vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 1015), the applicant, Julia Ann W. Casey, was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by blood, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It appears from the record in this case that on August 12, 1898, the applicant, Wiley P. Casey, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to the applicant, Julia Ann W. Casey (nee Walker); that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the record herein that on December 4, 1903, under the provisions of a portion of section 21 of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), the applicant, Julia Ann W. Casey, elected in writing for herself and her minor son, Pushamataha Casey, to be finally enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and to take their allotment of lands and distribution of moneys in said Nation.

It further appears that the applicant, Julia Ann W. Casey, was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, all applicants listed upon census cards in 1898 have been first examined as to such fact, although their testimony was not reduced to writing.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Wiley P. Casey should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage, and that Julia Ann W. Casey and Pushamataha Casey should be enrolled as citizens by blood, of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat ., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert C. Florence as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Robert C. Florence, on November 27, 1874, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Mary Jane Florence (nee Gardner) a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 222 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Robert C. Florence should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Eula H. Magner, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

It appears from the record herein that in the year 1890, the applicant, Eula H. Magner, was lawfully married to Charles Hibden, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who is identified upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Pay Roll, Chickasaw District, page 27, number 267; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and lived together continuously as husband and wife from the date of said marriage until the death of said Charles Hibden, on February 18, 1894.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled "Mrs. Eula Hibden, vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 1415), application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321), for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by reason of her marriage to said Charles Hibden, and that on December 8, 1896, the said Eula H. Magner was by the Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the record herein that on August 8, 1897, the applicant was married to Oscar B. Magner, a white man, having no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood, and that she had been a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation from the date of her said marriage to said Charles Hibden, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce, (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, Eula H. Magner should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

The Choctaw Nation	:

Your petitioners respectfully represent that Charles Hibdon, late of Paoli, in the Chickasaw Nation, was in his lifetime a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Indians by blood and as such was on the rolls of citizenship of said Nation and received his pro-rata share of the Leased District Moneys; that in 1890 Eula M. Hibdon (now Eula M. Magner) was married to the said Charles Hibdon and thereby became a citizen of the Choctaw Nation; that the said Charles Hibdon was killed in the year 1894, leaving him surviving the said Eula M. Hibdon, his widow, Jesse D. Hibdon and Charlie Hibdon, his children; that the names of your petitioners, Eula M. Hibdon, Jesse D. Hibdon and Charlie Hibdon were duly entered upon the rolls of citizenship of the Choctaw Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Choctaw Nation as made up in the year 1896; that your petitioner, Oscar B, Magner, is a white person born in the State of Indianna, 24 years of age and has lived in the Chickasaw Nation for seven years last passed; that on the 8th. day of August, your petitioner, Oscar B. Magner, was married to the said Eula M. Hibdon according to the Tribal Laws and regulations; a certified copy of the marriage license, marriage certificate and certificate of record is hereto attached; that all of your petitioners reside in the Chickasaw Nation, in the Indian Territory and their postoffice address is Paul's Valley, Ind. Terry.

Wherefore your petitioners pray that their names be entered upon the rolls of citizenship of the Choctaw Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Merriman W. Suttle as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that Merriman W. Suttle appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in the case entitled " . W. Suttle vs. Choctaw Nation." (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 1070) the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321) for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with Willie Ann Suttle (nee Guoynes) in 1865 and with Lucy Suttle (nee Patton) in 1871, recognized citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 8, 1896 the said Merriman W. Suttle was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that in 1898 the applicant was married to a white woman, having no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood, and that he had been a resident in good faith of the Choctaw-Chickasaw country from the date of his marriage with the said Willie Ann Suttle in 1865 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Merriman W. Suttle should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Charley S. Vincent as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on June 1, 1893, the applicant, Charley S. Vincent, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Lena Vincent (neeRiddle), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 228 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 1[illegible], 1902; that at the date of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It appears from the records of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in the case entitled "Chas. S. Vincent vs Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case No. 251), original application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat.,321), for the admission of the applicant, Charley S. Vincent, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of his marriage with the said Lena Vincent; and on December 2, 1896, the said Charley S. Vincent was, by this Commission, denied admission to citizenship as a citizen by intermarriage of said Nation, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It appears from the census card record in this case that on September 13, 1898, the said Charley S. Vincent made application to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming the right thereto by reason of his marriage to said Lena Vincent.

Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, October 23, 1902.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission, the applicant (as Chas. I. Vincent), is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, No. 15137, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said Nation.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Angeline White (I.T.D.1130-1905), Charley S. Vincent should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

C. S. Vincent,

Womack, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 31, asking if the enrollment of Charles S. Vincent, (intermarried), Lena Vincent, Mona, Mahuatie and Monnie Vincent, has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Lena Vincent, Nona Vincent, Mahautie Vincent and Monnie Vincent, have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on December 12, 1902, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It further appears from our records that Charley S. Vincent husband of Lena Vincent, has been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, but his final right to such enrollment has not yet been determined. As soon as a decision is reached in this case you will be notified of the action of the Commission.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 5, 1904, asking if your enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission has not yet passed upon your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from our records that you were an applicant to this Commission in 1896 for admission as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 10, 1896, such application was rejected by the Commission, from which decision no appeal was taken to the United States Court in Indian Territory, within the time prescribed by law.

It also appears that you have been recognized by the Choctaw tribal authorities as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and that your name appears as such intermarried citizen on the 1896 census roll of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

As soon as a decision is reached in this case, you will be notified of the action taken therein.

Thomas St.John, opposite No.896, upon the final roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation. Denied by Commission in 1896 in Choctaw case No.1059; no appeal. Patents recorded.

John Quincy Adams, opposite No.621, upon the final roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation. Admitted by Commission in 1896 in case No.2; denied by United States court for southern district of Indian Territory; no appeal to Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

Mary A. Shanks, opposite No.629, upon the final roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation. Denied by Commission in 1896 in case No.219; admitted by United States court for southern district of Indian Territory; no appeal to Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

Clay McCoy, opposite No.606, upon the final roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation. Admitted by Commission in 1896 in case No.141; admitted by United States court for southern district of Indian Territory; no appeal to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court. Directed to be enrolled by Department April 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 3128-1905).

The Indian Office, to which was referred your letter of the 27th ultimo for report, concurs in letter of March 2, 1907, in your recommendation that such names be stricken from the rolls.

The Department is compelled to rely upon your investigation, as the act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137), provides in section 2 that the rolls of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations shall be completed on or before the 4th day of March, 1907, and that the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person after such date. Assuming, therefore, that your information is correct, the names of the persons mentioned, not heretofore stricken from the partial rolls, are stricken from such rolls this day, notwithstanding any decision that may have been made by the Department in favor of such persons.

As recommended by you, the names of Joe and Dillard Perry have been reinstated upon the Chickasaw freedmen roll, opposite Nos. 267 and 268.

The Department concurs in your views relative to the following persons:

Rena Mitchell and Allen Yates Mitchell, opposite Nos. 15655 and 15656, respectively, upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Denied by Commission in 1896 in case No.1299; no appeal. Patents recorded.

David K. Strickland and Nettie P. Strickland, opposite Nos. 15919 and 15920, upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Denied by Commission in 1896 in case No.941; no appeal.

Nettie P. McMurtry and Martha E. McMurtry, opposite Nos. 15448 and 15449, respectively, upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Denied by Commission in 1896 in case No.1284; no appeal. Homestead patents recorded.

Rufus Satterfield, opposite No.15930, upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Denied by Commission in 1896 in case No.1068; no appeal.

Charles William Thompson, opposite No.4968, on the final roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation. Admitted by Commission in 1896 in case No.162; admitted by United States court for southern district of Indian Territory; no appeal to Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

You state that such persons are minor children of duly enrolled citizens by blood of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation, and that the names of one parent of each of these children appears upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation approved by the Department prior to March 3, 1905, and that while under the opinion of the Attorney-General of February 19, 1907, it would appear that these children are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation under the acts of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), you believe that such children can be enrolled under a provision of the Act of March 3, 1905 (33 Stat., 1060), which is as follows:

> "That the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes is hereby authorized for sixty days after the date of the approval of this Act to receive and consider applications for enrollment of infant children born prior to September twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and two, and who were living on said date, to citizens by blood of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians whose enrollment has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior prior to the date of the approval of this Act, and to enroll and make allotments to such children."

In this the Department concurs, and as you suggest, the names of these children will be permitted to stand as they are at present on the rolls of citizens by blood of these two nations.

If by inadvertence the name of anyone has been left on any partial roll after decision adverse to him was made by the Department prior to March 5, 1907, and since the opinion of the Attorney-General referred to, the name of such person will be stricken from the roll as of this date.

A copy of Indian Office letter of March 2, 1907, is inclosed.

Respectfully,

(Signed) E. A. Hitchcock,

Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

March 2, 1907.

C O P Y

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Acknowledgment is hereby made of the receipt of Departmental letter of this date, (I.T.D. 6902-1907), enclosing for report copy of letter of February 27, 1907, from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the names of persons who have heretofore been placed on the final rolls of citizens by blood of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, who are affected by the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of February 19, 1907.

Commissioner Kirby sets out in his letter the names of all the persons now appearing on the rolls who are deemed by him to be without right to enrollment under the opinion of the Attorney General mentioned. In some of these cases patents have been executed and recorded, and in others no patents have been issued.

The Office is of the opinion that the list prepared by the Commissioner contains the names of persons who in the light of the opinion of the Attorney General are not entitled to enrollment, and it is therefore recommended that the action of the Commissioner in striking the names of these persons from the roll be approved, and that their names also be stricken from the copies of the rolls in the possession of the Department and of this Office.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

EEH-LC..

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 29, 1907.

Charley S. Vincent,

Womack, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that in accordance with an opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of February 19, 1907, the Secretary of the Interior on March 4, 1907, directed the cancellation of your enrollment upon the roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Your name has accordingly been stricken from the copy of said roll in the possession of this office.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

January 19, 1909.

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Sir:

November 30, 1908, the Supreme Court ~~of~~ rendered decisions in what are known as the Goldsby and Allison cases. These suits were brought to obtain mandates against the Secretary of the Interior to correct the rolls as to said Goldsby and Allisons, on the ground that the Secretary of the Interior after placing their names upon approved rolls of citizenship had attempted to strike them from those rolls without notice and an opportunity to be heard. The decision of the Supreme Court is that mandate shall issue in those cases.

There are many suits of a similar nature pending against the Secretary of the Interior, and after careful conferences between this Department and the Department of Justice it was decided that judgment should be allowed in all pending mandamus actions in which the relators stand clearly in the same position as Goldsby and the Allisons. Pursuant to these conferences and to the judgments which may be entered on account of the above decisions of the and notations which purport to strike any of the following names from the rolls of citizens of the respective nations of the Five Civilized Tribes:

PERSONS WHO HAD PRIOR TO THE GOLDSBY DECISION INSTITUTED SUITS, THE PRINCIPLES OF WHICH ARE UNDOUBTEDLY SIMILAR TO THE OPINION OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THAT DECISION.

A careful investigation of those names concerning which no suits were brought, but which, after being upon an approved roll of citizens or freedmen of any of the Five Civilized Tribes, were stricken therefrom without notice and an opportunity to be heard, has thus far developed a list which undoubtedly falls within the principles expressed by the Supreme Court in the Goldsby decision. All these persons are in the same position as those named in the above list of those who had filed suits prior to that decision. It follows necessarily that, if suits were instituted in these cases, judgment must be allowed as was done in the case of the names on the above list. For this reason I have decided that it would be improper to delay the correction of the rolls as far as these persons are concerned. Such delay would continue the rolls in an incorrect condition according to the opinion of the Supreme Court, would bring hardship and expense upon the citizens and freedmen involved, and would delay completion of the work of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

The correction of the rolls in these cases does not add names to the rolls, but merely erases from the rolls interlineations and notations which the court says the Secretary of the Interior has no power to place there. For those reasons you are hereby directed to erase the interlineations and notations which purport to strike any of the following names from the rolls of citizens of the respective nations of the Five Civilized Tribes:

PERSONS WHO HAD NOT INSTITUTED SUITS PRIOR TO THE GOLDSBY DECISION BUT WHOSE CASES FALL INDUBITABLY UNDER THE PRINCIPLES OF THAT DECISION.

In order that the action of erasures may be uniform fro all names and upon all rolls, you will make such erasures in the following manner: The lines drawn through and purporting to cancel the names from the rolls shall be lined out by drawing across them short transverse lines in red ink. The notations purporting to cancel the names from the rolls shall be lined out by drawing through each line of said notations red horizontal lines. In addition to lining out the interlineations and notations you will insert a note at the foot or side of each page containing any of these corrections, said note to be indicated by stars placed before the names involved. The note shall read as follows:

"Words and lines purporting cancellation erased by authority of departmental letter of January 19, 1909 (File 5-51)."

You will notify all persons, whose status on the rolls has been recognized as above, of the action taken, and that they have all the rights to allotment and payments enjoyed by other citizens, as though no attempt had ever been made to cancel their names from the rolls.

Except for the Allisons named in above lists, I am not ready to give you a list of the Cherokees and Creeks whose status upon the rolls will be corrected under the principles of the Goldsby decision. Direction concerning them will follow within a week.

There are other names which were upon approved rolls and were erased or stricken therefrom by the Secretary of the Interior without notice. Some of these are already the subject of injunction or mandamus actions against the Secretary of the Interior, and in other cases such action has not been instituted. There are reasons which make it doubtful whether those persons fall indubitably under the principles of the Goldsby decision. Careful consideration of the matter will be given at once, and, according to the decision reached in each casem the persons involved will be left to such court action as they deem wise or will have the rolls corrected by departmental action in the manner indicated for the two lists set forth above.

A sample page is inclosed, showing the method of erasure to be followed by all officers in the correction of the rolls.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) James Rudolph Garfield

Secretary.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, February 6, 1909.

Mr. Charley S. Vincent,

Womack, Oklahoma.

Sir:

I am instructed by the Department of the Interior that your case falls within the principles of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of John E. Goldsby et al., seeking to have their names restored to the rolls of citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, and that the notations striking your name from the roll of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation shall be erased and that you have all the rights to allotment and payments enjoyed by other citizens as if no attempt had ever been made to cancel your name from this roll.

Said instructions have been carried out by this office, and you are now advised that the status of your name on the approved roll of citizens of the Chickasaw Nation and of your allotment selection in said nation is the same as prior to March 4, 1907, when the Secretary of the Interior directed that your name be stricken from the roll.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

D E C I S I O N

--:o:--

It appears from the record herein that Isaac W. Williams, on September 16, 1888, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Georgianna N. Williams, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 232 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Isaac W. Williams should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Joe G. Carrier as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Joe G. Carrier, on February 16, 1874, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Lou Carrier (nee McGee), a recognized citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who died in the year 1879, and that the applicant has since that time remained unmarried.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 4, 1896, in the case entitled "Joe Carrier vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case No. 748), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321) for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with the said Lou Carrier (nee McGee), and on December 3, 1896, the said Joe G. Carrier was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Joe G. Carrier should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

--:o:--

It appears from the record herein that Elizabeth Spain, on February 28, 1876, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Thomas G. Spain, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 237 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902, and that said parties have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in a case entitled "Mrs. M. E. Spain vs. Choctaw Nation," 1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, Case No. 823, application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321) for admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by reason of her marriage to the said Thomas G. Spain; that on December 4, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission, and that no appeal was taken from said decision.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Elizabeth Spain should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Era Freeny as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Era Freeny,(formerly Holt) was on September 20, 1896, married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Ben Freeny, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 245 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Era Freeny should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Allie Camp as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

-:o:-

It appears from the record herein that on October 26, 1892, Allie Camp (nee Wallace) was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Joe A. Camp, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 247 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Allie Camp should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, I.T.

Gentlemen:-

Replying to your favor of the 21st. ultimo. wherein you refer to letters written by your Commission on April 20-03 and May 20-03 relative to Hoover Camp, and advising that his name is not to be found on the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, and asking for a sworn statement as to the reason why his name does not appear, I have to say that when the members of the Choctaw Commission who made the 1896 Census Roll came to Pauls Valley, I.T. in the preparation of said rollI appeared before them and gave them the name of Hoover Camp at the same time I told them that another one of my children Carrie Camp had died a short time prior to that date.

In looking up this roll I find that the name of the child that was dead at this time appears upon the 1896 roll, and that the name of Hoover Camp is left off of said roll, the Commission making said roll must therefor have made a mistake.

This is the only explanation I have to offer as to why his name does not appear on said roll and I know that I appeared before the Commission and made this statement and at the same time D.H.Hoover who was the attending physician also appeared before them and made the same statement.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of January [illegible], 1903, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior has been by him referred to this Commission for consideration and appropriate action. You state therein that you have a child born December 31, 1902, and that you and the rest of your family are recognized citizens of the Choctaw Nation, and you ask if you are entitled to hold an allotment of land for this child. You also wish to know how many acres of land you can hold as your allotment.

In reply to your letter your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902:

"The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment or to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws."

You are informed that if you will forward to the Commission a description of the lands which you desire to select in allotment you will be furnished a plat showing the classification thereof, and a schedule of the appraised value of the lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, which also shows the number of acres of each grade which will constitute an allotment.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 19, 1903, in which you ask if your child, born December 31, 1902, can be enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Replying to your communication, you are advised that the Commission is without authority to enroll as citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations children born subsequent to September 25, 1902, as the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902, provides as follows:

> "The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment or to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws."

Replying to that part of your letter, in which you ask when the land office will be opened at Tishomingo, you are advised that no date has been definitely determined for the establishment of land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, but it is probable same will be opened April 1, 1903.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 17, 1905.

J. A. Camp,

Paoli, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 12, 1905, stating that you have forwarded birth affidavits to the Indian Commission for the enrollment of your children born since September 25, 1902; that the one is living and the other is dead.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that affidavits have been forwarded the Commission relative to children born to you since September 25, 1902, and for your assistance there is inclosed herewith blank application for the enrollment of an infant child.

You are further informed that under the provisions of the act of Congress approved March 3, 1905, the Commission is authorized to receive applications for the enrollment of children born to enrolled citizens by blood of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations between September 25, 1902, and March 4, 1905, who were living on said latter date. You will therefore see that the Commission is without authority to enroll children born to citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations subsequent to September 25, 1902, who were not living on March 4, 1905.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

I, Thomas B. Needles, a member of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, do hereby certify that S. J. Garvin, about 58 years of age, of Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, is an applicant to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. The applicant appears from our records to have been married and living with a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation since 1870 and has since that time been recognized and enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. There is on file with the records of the Commission evidence of his marriage to his Choctaw wife and there appears to have been no objection ever entered by the Choctaw Nation to the final enrollment of S. J. Garvin as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. In addition to his tribal enrollment by the Choctaw Nation, the applicant was also admitted as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by a judgment of the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory, December, 22, 1897.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George Gray as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--:D E C I S I O N:--

It appears from the record herein that on November 25, 1884 the applicant, George Gray, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Viney Gray (nee Gardner), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 8063 enrolled thereon as a citizen by blood of said nation; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage until the death of the said Viney Gray on April 3, 1900; that in July, 1901 the applicant was lawfully married to Mary Gray, a white woman, having no rights to Choctaw citizenship by blood; and that the applicant had continued to reside in the Chickasaw Nation from the date of the death of the said Viney Gray up to and including September 25, 1902.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 14591, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I. T. D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, George Gray should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

My name is H. M. Byford; my age is fifty-seven years; my post-office is Ada, Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory. I am the H. M. Byford who is an applicant for enrolment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, which application, together with evidence in the shape of marriage license and other documental evidence, is now pending before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes. I was married on the 9th day of September, 1893, at John Thompson's, Jack Fork County, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, near String Town. I was married to Ellen Lewis, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. I have resided with the said Ellen Lewis continuously since that time in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, and have never resided outside of the said Nations since that time. There is a copy of the original decree of divorce between Ellen Battice and Franceway Battice on file with the Commission in support of my application. The Ellen Lewis to whom I was married is the same and identical person mentioned in said decree of divorce as Ellen Battice. I know this of my own personal knowledge. Her maiden name was Ellen Lewis and she afterwards married Franceway Battice. After her divorce from said Battice she again took the name of Ellen Lewis by I was married to her under that name.

D E C I S I O N

--:o:--

It appears from the record herein that Fred L. Conner, on August 15, 1896, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Effie May Conner (nee Sacra), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 264 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902, and that said parties have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It further appears from the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in a case entitled "F. L. Corner vs. Choctaw Nation," 1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket Case No. 70, application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321) for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by reason of his marriage to the said Effie May Conner (nee Sacra); that on December 1, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission, and that no appeal was taken from said decision.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Fred L. Conner should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, I. T. January 25, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Olivia Muncreif for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw nation. Olivia Muncrief being first duly sworn by the Commission testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A Olivia Muncreif.
Q How old are you? A Twenty two.
Q What is your post-office address? A Comanche, I. T.
Q Do you live at Comanche,? A I live near there. Three and one half miles south.
Q In the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Chickasaw Nation? A Five years.
Q Lived there continuously for the past five years? A Yes sir. Five years last September.
Q It is your purpose to make application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your father's name? A Henry P. Clowney.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Clara A. Clowney.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Are your parents both white people ? A Yes sir.
Q Never made any claim to Indian citizenship by blood? A No sir.
Q Have you ever made any claim to Indian citizenship by blood? A No sir, not at all.
Q You are a white woman are you? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A Walter Lee Muncrief.
Q Is he a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood? A Yes sir.
Q Has he been enrolled as such by this Commission? A He was enrolled at Pauls Valley.
Q By this Commission? A Yes sir.
Q How old is he? A Twenty one.
Q What is his father's name? A Sam Muncrief.
Q What is his mother's name? A Magaret Muncrief.
Q Is she living? A No sir.

The records of the Commission examined and the name of Walter L. Muncrief, listed for enrollment September 14th, 1898 and whose age was at that time given as nineteen, appears upon Choctaw roll card field No. 128.

Q When were you married to him? A The 9th of January.

Q How long has he lived there? A Six years I believe.
Q And you have lived there five years? A Yes sir.
Q How long were you in the Choctaw Nation before you obtained this marriage license? A A couple of days is all I think.
Q Did you come to the Choctaw nation for the purpose of being married? A Yes sir.
Q And then went back to the Chickasaw nation? A Yes sir.
Q Comanche is on the Rock Island Railroad in the western part of the Chickasaw nation, isn't it? A Yes sir.
Q Why weren't you married in the Chickasaw Nation? A That was his idea about it. I never heard him say.
Q Is that the only reason he gave? A Yes sir.
Q Your husband has always lived in the Chickasaw nation? A No sir not always. He made Pauls Valley his home for five or six years.
Q That is in the Chickasaw nation? A Yes sir.
Q Well, how long has he lived in the Chickasaw Nation? A About six years.
Q Where did he live before that? A In the Choctaw.
Q Is there any additional statement you desire to make in support of your application? A I haven't anything to say about it at all.

The decision of the Commission as to your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation will be mailed to you inwriting in the near future to your present post-office address.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Olivia Muncrief as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on January 9, 1901, the applicant, Olivia Muncrief, was lawfully married to Walter L. Muncrief, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 268 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said nation from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T. D. 6818-1904), Olivia Muncrief should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Virginia Muncrief as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Virginia Muncrief, (nee Dodson) on July 30, 1891, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Sam Muncrief, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 267 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Virginia Muncrief should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of A. H. Trueblood as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that A. H. Trueblood appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with Mary J. Trueblood (nee Monorief), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 271 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 12, 1902.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in the case entitled "A. H. Trueblood, et al. vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case No.284), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321) for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with the said Mary J. Trueblood (nee Monorief), and on December 2, 1896, the said A. H. Trueblood was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that A. H. Trueblood should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James E. Burch as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that James E. Burch appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with Lizzie Burch (nee Garvin), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who died September 26, 1895.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in the case entitled "J. E. Burch, et al. vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case No. 882), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with the said Lizzie Burch (nee Garvin), and on December 4, 1896, the said James E. Burch was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that James E. Burch should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Michael McMenamin as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation

----DECISION----

It is shown by the Census Card record in this case that application was made to the Commission at its session held at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, commencing September 12, and ending September 16, 1898, for the enrollment of Michael McMenamin as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Ardmore, Indian Territory on October 30, 1902.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in this case and the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in a case entitled "M. McMinamen, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation", 1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, Case No. 1267, application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by reason of his marriage to Harriett McMenamin (nee Gardner) a recognized citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that on December 8, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission; that no appeal was taken from said decision, and that his status as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation has remained unchanged from the time of said decision up to and including September 25, 1902. It also appears from the evidence submitted in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Michael McMenamin should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats. 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Wayne Lee Mackey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It is shown by the census card record in this case that application was made to the Commission at its session held at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, commencing September 12 and ending September 16, 1898, for the enrollment of Wayne Lee Mackey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, on October 20, 1902.

It appears from the record in this case that the applicant herein is a white woman, having no Indian blood, that she claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by reason of her marriage on January 2, 1897, to [illegible] Mackey, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; and that at the time of said marriage both persons were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation.

It does not appear from the evidence submitted in this case or the records in the possession of the Commission that the applicant herein has ever been recognized or admitted by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen of said nation, or that she has ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the legally constituted authorities of said nation; nor does it appear that she has ever been admitted to citizenship in said nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (29 Stats., 321), nor does it appear that she was ever married to her Choctaw husband in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Wayne Lee Mackey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 16, asking that the Commission reconsider its decision in the application of your wife, Wayne Lee Mackey for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that, on July 20, 1903, the Commission rendered its decision refusing the application of Wayne Lee Mackey for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation and, on the same date copy of the decision was forwarded to her by registered mail at Wynnewood, Indian Territory, and the record in the case, together with the decision of the Commission refusing said application was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior.

On February 6, 1904, there was filed with the record in this case the protest of the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of January 23, 1904, in which they request that final decision in this case be postponed until the final decision of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of Preston Early et al., vs. the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Referring to Choctaw enrollment case of Wayne Lee [illegible] which was forwarded the Department on July 30, 1902, together with the decision of the Commission of that date refusing the application and to your telegram of October 11, 1904, to Ledbetter, [illegible] Thompson, Ardmore, Indian Territory, as follows:

"Answering telegram [illegible] Department instant application of Wayne Lee [illegible] returned to the Department on [illegible] 1, 1904, not yet returned to the Department."

I have to advise that a careful examination of our records shows that Departmental letter of March 18, 1904, returning the record in this case has never been received at this office.

I have, therefore, to request that the Commission be furnished, as early as practicable, with a copy of Departmental letter of [illegible], 1904, above referred to.

Respectfully,

Gentlemen:-

The Department is in receipt of your letter of October 20, 1904, requesting that you be furnished with a copy of departmental letter of March 10, 1904, returning the record in the Chickasaw enrollment case of Wayne Lee Mackey. You state that you have never received such departmental letter and you refer to departmental telegram of October 1, 1904, to Pelletier, Bledsoe & Thompson, Paul Valley, Indian Territory, as follows:

> "Answering telegram fifteenth instant application of Wayne Lee Mackey, was returned to the Dawes Commission on March 10, 1904, not yet returned to the Department."

You are advised that the statement in said telegram was erroneous, the papers in said case having been returned to the Indian Office on that date, where the case is now pending awaiting the decision of the Chickasaw-Choctaw Citizenship Court in the Brent v. Early case.

A copy of Indian Office letter of October 29, 1904, transmitting your letter, is inclosed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to forward a letter from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 26, 1904, referring to Choctaw enrollment case of Wayne Lee Mackey, which was forwarded by the Commission on July 30, 1903, together with the decision of the Commission of that date, refusing the application and to Departmental telegram of October 13, 1904 to Leibetter, Gladson & Thompson of Paulo Valley, Indian Territory as follows:

> Answering telegram thirteenth, application of Wayne Lee Mackey was returned to the Dawes Commission on March 18, 1904, not yet returned to the Department.

Chairman Bixby reports that a careful examination of the records of the Commission shows that Departmental letter of March 18, 1904, returning the record in this case has never been received at his office. He therefore requests that the Commission be furnished as early as practicable with a copy of Departmental letter of March 18, 1904 above referred to.

The case in question is now pending in this office and has ever since its original receipt been pending in this office awaiting the decision of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the Preston Early case. The papers do not show that they have ever been in the Department, neither do the records of this office show that they have ever been forwarded for departmental action in any respect whatever. I therefore conclude that the statement contained in the telegram referred to was erroneous.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 14, 1904, in which you state that on October 18 last you addressed a letter to the Commission as follows:

"Will you kindly advise me by return mail if the name of Wayne Lee Mackey appears upon the Choctaw Tribal Rolls, and especially the Choctaw Census Roll of 1896, together with the names of the other members of her family, viz: W. M. Mackey, Missouri Lee Mackey, Louis M. Mackey, Ela Mackey and Adolphus Mackey. I am informed the last rolls of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians, made under the authorities of the tribal government are now in the possession of your body. If the name of Wayne Lee Mackey appears on said rolls, together with the other members of the family above named, will you kindly advise me as to what roll her name so appears upon, giving me the page or pages thereof?"

You state that you have not received a reply to this request for information and as the matter is pending before the Commissioner of Indian Affairs you desire this information for consideration in connection with the application of Wayne Lee Mackey for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that there was received at this office a letter from Ledbetter, Bledsoe & Thompson under date of October 18, 1904, requesting information relative to the tribal enrollment of Wayne

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Gentlemen:

July 20, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Wayne Lee Mackey for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

February 3, 1905, you transmitted the affidavit of Henrietta Jennings to be considered in connection with the record.

July 20, 1903, you decided adversely to the applicant on the ground that she was not "married to her Choctaw husband in accordance with the laws, customs, and usages of the Chickasaw Nation."

The evidence submitted shows that applicant Wayne Lee Mackey, a white woman having no Indian blood, was married on January 2, 1887, under her maiden name, Wayne Hill, to Elum Mackey, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. At the time of said marriage both parties were bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation, where they still reside. License authorizing said marriage is claimed to have been procured by Elum Mackey from the clerk of the county court of Blue County, Choctaw

Nation, Ind. Ter., and the marriage ceremony was performed by a minister of the gospel at the residence of the bride's father in Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation, Ind. Ter. The license was not introduced in evidence, but the certificate of the officiating minister appears in the record. Applicant does not seek enrollment in the Chickasaw Nation, where she and her husband reside, but seeks enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, of which her husband is a recognized and enrolled member.

To confer Choctaw citizenship upon a white woman it was only necessary to show a valid subsisting marriage, followed by a residence with her Choctaw husband in the nation wherein he resides. Seeking enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, of which her husband is a member, and not as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, of which her husband was only a resident, applicant was not required to be married in accordance with the laws of the Chickasaw Nation in order to confer citizenship upon her in the Choctaw Nation. The citizenship of her husband and not his place of residence determined applicant's right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

The Commission in its decision denying her enrollment stated that it did not appear "from the record in the possession of the Commission that the applicant herein has ever been recognized or enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen of said nation," yet it appears in evidence from a copy of a letter of the Commission dated December 17, 1904, addressed to J. B. Thompson, attorney at law, Muskogee, Okla. Ter., attached to brief of attorney for applicant that the name of Wayne Lee Mackey as Wayne L. McCorkey is found upon the Choctaw 1896 census roll of intermarried citizens as said name appears No. 396, No. 14883."

The Department is of opinion that in harmony with the principles announced by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of Lula L. Brown vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw nations reported in eleventh annual report of said Commission at page 21 thereof, and in accordance with the decision of the Choctaw Citizenship Court in the case of Walter Howell, No. 20 on the citizenship docket of said court, and following the decisions of the Department in the cases of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 7576, 1903, 32 L.D., 24, August 29, 1904), and Annie Blakely (I.T.D. 1410, 1903, 32 L.D. 1904, December 29, 1904), applicant is entitled to enrollment as a intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

December 30, 1904, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs reporting in the matter, recommended that the decision of the Commission be reversed, and that the enrollment of the applicant be directed. A copy of his letter is herewith inclosed.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner so made and your decision dated July 20, 1904, denying her right to said enrollment is hereby reversed, and you are directed to enroll Wayne Lee Mackey as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Secretary.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of March 18, 1904, I.T.D. 2218, I have the honor to transmit the record relative to the application of Wayne Lee Mackey for enrollment as a citizen, by intermarriage, of the Choctaw Nation. The record in the case shows that on January 2, 1887, the applicant, whose maiden name was Hill, was married to "Klum McKay", a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It appears, however, that the correct name of the husband is J. C. Mackey. At the time of the marriage both parties were residents of the Chickasaw Nation, and the Commission on July 20, 1903, found that the applicant had never been admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, by the Commission or the Court, and that she was not married to her Choctaw husband in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation, and that she was not therefore entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. The question involved in this case was settled by the Department December 7, 1904, I.T.D. 2220, in the Laura Stidham case, and, as it is not required under Choctaw laws that the marriage of a white woman to a Choctaw man be performed in accordance with the laws of the Choctaw Nation in order for her to acquire intermarried Choctaw citizenship, I respectfully recommend that the desi-sion of the Commission mentioned herein, be reversed, and that the enrollment of the applicant be directed.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Gentlemen:

July 20, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Wayne Lee Mackey for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

February 3, 1905, you transmitted the affidavit of Henrietta Jennings to be considered in connection with the record.

July 20, 1903, you decided adversely to the applicant on the ground that she was not "married to her Choctaw husband in accordance with the laws, customs, and usages of the Chickasaw Nation."

The evidence submitted shows that applicant Wayne Lee Mackey, a white woman having no Indian blood, was married on January 2, 1887, under her maiden name, Wayne Hill, to Elum Mackey, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. At the time of said marriage both parties were bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation, where they still reside. License authorizing said marriage is claimed to have been procured by Elum Mackey from the clerk of the county court of Blue County, Choctaw

Nation, Ind. Ter., and the marriage ceremony was performed by a minister of the gospel at the residence of the bride's father in Pontotoc County, Chickasaw Nation, Ind. Ter. The license was not introduced in evidence, but the certificate of the officiating minister appears in the record. Applicant does not seek enrollment in the Chickasaw Nation, where she and her husband reside, but seeks enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, of which her husband is a recognized and enrolled member.

To confer Choctaw citizenship upon a white woman it was only necessary to show a valid subsisting marriage, followed by a residence with her Choctaw husband in the nation wherein he resides. Seeking enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, of which her husband is a member, and not as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, of which her husband was only a resident, applicant was not required to be married in accordance with the laws of the Chickasaw Nation in order to confer citizenship upon her in the Choctaw Nation. The citizenship of her husband and not his place of residence determined applicant's right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

The Commission in its decision denying her enrollment stated that it did not appear "from the record in the possession of the Commission that the applicant herein has ever been recognized or enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw Nation as a citizen of said nation," yet it appears in evidence from a copy of a letter of the Commission dated December 17, 1904, addressed to J. B. Thompson, attorney at Law, Pauls Valley, Ind. Ter., attached to brief of attorney for applicant that "the name of Wayne Lee Mackey as Wayne L. McMackey is found upon the Choctaw 1896 census roll of intermarried citizens of said nation, page 396, No. 14883."

The Department is of opinion that in harmony with the principles announced by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court in the case of Lula B. Trahern vs. Choctaw and Chickasaw nations reported in eleventh annual report of the Commission at page 131 thereof, and in accordance with the decision of the Choctaw Citizenship Court in the case of Nettie Howell, No. 101 on the Tishomingo docket of said court, and following the decisions of the Department in the cases of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 7578, 1903, 6818,1904, August 29, 1904), and Annie Blakely (I.T.D. 4510, 1903, 12796, 1904, December 29, 1904), applicant is entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

December 30, 1904, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs reporting in the matter, recommended that the decision of the Commission be reversed, and that the enrollmen of the applicant be directed. A copy of his letter is herewith inclosed.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner so made and your decision dated July 20, 1903, denying her right to said enrollment is hereby reversed, and you are directed to enroll Wayne Lee Mackey as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of March 18, 1904, I.T.D. 2218, I have the honor to transmit the record relative to the application of Wayne Lee Mackey for enrollment as a citizen, by intermarriage, of the Choctaw Nation. The record in the case shows that on January 2, 1887, the applicant, whose maiden name was Hill, was married to "Elum McKay", a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It appears, however, that the correct name of the husband is W.M. Mackey. At the time of the marriage both parties were residents of the Chickasaw Nation, and the Commission on July 20, 1903, found that the applicant had never been admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, by the Commission or the Court, and that she was not married to her Choctaw husband in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation, and that she was not therefore entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. The question involved in this case was settled by the Department December 7, 1904, I.T.D. 2220, in the Laura Stidham case, and, as it is not required under Choctaw laws that the marriage of a white woman to a Choctaw man be performed in accordance with the laws of the Choctaw Nation in order for her to acquire intermarried Choctaw citizenship, I respectfully recommend that the desi-

sion of the Commission mentioned herein, be reversed, and that the enrollment of the applicant be directed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-----:-----

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Allie Dibrell as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-----:-----

D E C I S I O N.

-----:-----

It appears from the record herein that Allie Dibrell (nee Allie Tucker) claims rights as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of her marriage, on December 26, 1897, with Charles Dibrell, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 15336 on the list prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior May 9, 1904; that at the time of the said marriage the applicant was a resident of the Chickasaw Nation, and the said Charles Dibrell was also a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation: that they were married under a United States license, and have lived together continuously as husband and wife in the Chickasaw Nation up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6818-1904), Allie Dibrell should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Alice Grant as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

-----D E C I S I O N -----

It is shown by the Census Card record in this case that application was made to the Commission at its session at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, commencing September 12, and ending September 16, 1898, for the enrollment of Alice Grant as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory on October 24, 1902.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in this case and the records in the possession of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in a case entitled "Mrs. Chas. M. Grant vs Choctaw Nation", 1896 Choctaw citizenship Docket, Case No. 261, application was made to the Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats. 321) for the admission of the applicant herein to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by reason of her marriage on June 22, 1892, to Charley M. Grant, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 282 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats. 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that on December 2, 1896, the applicant herein was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by this Commission, and that no appeal was taken from said decision.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in this case that both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that Alice Grant should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats. 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lella Myrtle Cunningham as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that Lella Myrtle Cunningham (nee Dill) claims rights as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of her marriage on September 11, 1898, with West L. Cunningham, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 14484, upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, May 20, 1903; that at the time of said marriage said applicant was a resident of the Chickasaw Nation, and that the said West L. Cunningham was also a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that they were married under United States license and have lived together as husband and wife continuously as actual and bona fide residents of the Chickasaw Nation from the date of said marriage, up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones, (I. T. D. 6818-1904), Lella Myrtle Cunningham should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

IN THE CHOCTAW AND CHICKASAW CITIZENSHIP COURT SITTING AT SOUTH McALESTER, IN THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF THE INDIAN TERRITORY IN THE CHOCTAW NATION.

Lula L.Trahern, alias Lula F.Trahern,----------Appellant,

vs #40.

The Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations,----------Appellees.

The Treaty of 1866 with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations provided, in section 36 thereof, that,

" Every white person who having married a Choctaw or Chickasaw resides in the said Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation etc. is---------- is to be deemed a member of said Nation----------.

As has heretofore been declared in cases decided in this court to entitle a white person to be deemed a member of said nation or nations, the white person must have married a Choctaw or Chickasaw and must reside in the Choctaw or Chickasaw nation after said marriage. That is to say, a valid marriage to a Choctaw or Chickasaw must be followed by a residence in one of said Nations as the case may be.

A male Choctaw under the laws and regulations of the said Nation can contract a marriage which is legal outside of ~~XXX~~ said Nation and under the laws of any other State, and then bringing his white wife to reside in ~~the~~ said nation of which he is a member, and she afterwards there resides as his wife, she is to be deemed a member of said nation. Two things must concur. The valid marriage must take place by a male member of the Tribe or nation to a white woman and she must live and reside with her husband in said nation in which he resides.

The question involved in this case is whether a Choctaw man by blood, married in Mississippi, before he has been enrolled as a Choctaw by blood, in the Choctaw Nation, India Territory, can by removing and living in the Choctaw Nation with his wife so married, convert a her so to trunk, without remarrying her, into a member of said tribe. That is to say does the marriage, valid in all respects as such, and followed by residence, entitle the white woman to membership in the Nation of her husband from the time of her husband's enrolment as a Choctaw by blood (under existing laws and treaties) by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and the approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior? I think that these things are sufficient under section 26 of the Treaty of 1866.

There is of course a vast difference between the status of a white woman marrying a Choctaw or Chickasaw woman and a white woman marrying a Choctaw or Chickasaw man. The white man must marry in the Nation he seeks to become a member of by intermarriage according to its laws and regulation, and reside therein thereafter and remain with his wife. A white woman can be validly married to a Choctaw man in any jurisdiction outside of the Nation and by then residing in said Nation in the marital state with her Choctaw husband be deemed from such marriage and residence a member of that Nation. I cannot see how a marriage valid before her husband a Choctaw by blood was identified and entitled to enrolment in the respective Nation was valid thereafter, and followed by her residence continuously after his recognition and identification does not entitle the white wife to be deemed a member of the Nation of which her husband is a member. This conclusion it seems to me is according to the letter and spirit of section 26 of the Treaty of 1866 and in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Choctaw Nation.

Such a state of facts and conditions brings about what the Treaty intended, to-wit, a valid marriage and insuring the legitimacy of the off-spring, if any, of such marriage, and residence in the Nation as a member thereof, which are the two essential things the said Treaty seeks to effectuate.

I think that the appellant here Lula B. Trahern sometimes called Lula B. Trahern should be declared entitled as intermarried citizen thereof in the Choctaw Nation, and all rights accruing therefrom and it and living in the Choctaw Nation ----

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A William S. Autry.
Q How old are you? A Forty-nine.
Q What is your post office address? A Norman, Oklahoma.
Q Are you a resident of the Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Chickasaw Nation? A About 15 years.
Q Live here continuously for the past 15 years? A Yes sir.
Q You are a white man? A Yes sir.
Q And your wife is a Choctaw by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A Emma.
Q How many children have you? A Four, Alva, Hester, Edgar, Tams.
Q They are all living with you at this time? A Yes sir.
Q You and your wife are living together as husband and wife? A Yes sir.
Q The name of your son, Edgar, does not appear upon the Choctaw Census roll of 1896,- when was he born? A September 4, 1894.
Q How do you account for his name not appearing upon the 1896 Choctaw Census roll when the names of your wife and two older children appear thereon? A Well, the way I account for it is we never appeared there; but I cant account for the way the rest of the family got on the Census roll.
Q Your wife and your two older children drew the 1893 Leased District money, did they not? A Yes sir.
Q But Edgar was not born at that time? A No sir.
Q You did not appear before the Choctaw Census Commission in 1896 and try to get any of your family enrolled? A No sir.
Q I presume their names were taken from the 1893 Pay roll? A I expect that was the way.
Q Your wife's rights and the rights of your children have never been questioned in any manner by the tribal authorities? A No sir.
Q They have always enjoyed all the rights and privileges of Choctaw citizens? A Yes sir.
Q How does it happen that you did not make any effort to have their names placed upon the 1896 Census roll? A We lived in the country then and didn't hear of it; was not taking any papers and did not hear of it, and did not know they was there. I heard afterwards they had been there, but we didn't know it before, but they are on the Census roll of 1900.

Q By whom? A Hubbard.

Q That was the United States Census, was it not? I seems like he made them out separate.

Q But he did not make it by authority of the Choctaw or Chickasaw tribal authorities? A I dont know about that.

Q You applied in 1898 for the enrollment of this boy before the Commission? A Yes sir.

Sam P. Robinson being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission

Q What is your name? A Sam P. Robinson.
Q How old are you? A Forty-three.
Q What is your post office address? A Chickasha.
Q How long have you lived at Chickasha? A About one year I reckon
Q How long have you resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A About ten years I reckon.
Q Maintained a continuous residence here for the past ten years? A Yes, sir.
Q White man are you? A Yes, sir.
Q Claimant as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw wife through whom you claim your rights as an intermarried citizen? A Cora Buckholtz.
Q Cora Buckholtz belongs to the family of Buckholtz who were admitted to citizeship in the Choctaw Nation by the Supreme Court of the Choctaw Nation in 1872? A I don't know the dates but that is my understanding.
Q Your wife's parents and her people were never recognized as citizens of the Choctaw Nation until that act of admission in 1872? A I don't know anything about the dates.
Q Well their citizenship is dependent upon that act of admission by the Supreme Court of the Choctaw Nation? A I understood that there was no Council when they came here and they was admitted by the Supreme Court.
You say you were married to Cora Buckholtz whose rights are dependent upon that admission of the Supreme Court; when was you married to her? A '83 or '84; it was 18 years last December.
Q Where were you living when you were married to her? A In the Choctaw Nation.
Q Did you marry her under a Choctaw license? A Yes, sir.
Q How much did you pay for that license? A Twenty-five dollars.
Q That was in '83, A Yes or '84.
Q Have you since your marriage lived with this woman continuously? A Yes, sir.
Q There has been no separation, desertion or divorce? A No, sir.
Q You and this woman are now living together as husband and wife and are actual bonafide residents of the Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q You were admitted by the Dawes Commission in 1896, were you not? A No, sir.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on October 22, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sam P. Robinson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, Sam P. Robinson, claims rights as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of his marriage on December 27, 1883 with Cora Robinson (nee Buckholts), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 1,172 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on May 9, 1904.

It appears from the records of the Commission that on September 5, 1896 in the case entitled "Samuel P. Robinson vs. Choctaw Nation." (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 685), the applicant made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321) for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage to the said Cora Robinson and on December 3, 1896 the said Sam P. Robinson was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It appears from an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission that the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Chickasaw District, number 15010, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It further appears from the record herein that the applicant, Sam P. Robinson, was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898 and that his status as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation remained unchanged from the date of his admission in law up to and including September , 1904.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Sam B. Bolinger should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 7, 1897 (30 U.S., 62) and July 1, 1902 (U.S., 1), and it is so ordered.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of David M. Spain as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

--:D E C I S I O N:--

It appears from the census card record in this case that on September 14, 1898, the applicant herein appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from the record herein and the records of the Commission that on October 31, 1877, the applicant was admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by an act of the General Council of said Nation; and that his name appears upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Payment Roll, Chickasaw District, page 56, number 533, enrolled on said roll as a citizen by blood of said Nation, and upon the 1896 Chickasaw Census Roll, Pickens county, page 77, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of said Nation.

It further appears from the record herein that on April 8, 1904, under the provisions of a portion of section 21 of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), the applicant elected in writing to be finally enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and to take his allotment of lands and distribution of moneys in said Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that David M. Spain should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Cora M. Spain for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, Cora M. Spain, on November 30, 1901, was married, under the laws of the state of Texas, and in that state, to David M. Spain, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 15564 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on September 22,1904; that at the time of said marriage the applicant was a resident of the state of Texas and the said David M. Spain was a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation; that immediately thereafter, they took up their residence in the Chickasaw Nation, and have lived together as husband and wife, in said Nation, continuously since said time up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I.T.D. 6818-1904), Cora M. Spain should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of S. C. Riggan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---D E C I S I O N ----

It appears from the record herein that S. C. Riggan, on May 12, 1897, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Edith Riggan (nee Carr), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 291 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats. 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that S. C. Riggan should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats. 641) and it is so ordered.
